It cost $1,110,952 to elect Governor Wilson. We suspect our Democratic friends think it is worth it.

The Democratic Advocate of this city offered $100 in prizes in the corn growing contest and every prize was captured by a Republican contestant. Well, that is some solace for us anyway.

The initiative and referendum defeated several much needed school amendments for Missouri which would have been adopted under the former system. The new idea is a fine thing to vote against.

According to a report submitted to the secretary of the interior more bachelors than married men go insane. If the report is correct we are mighty glad some of our friends are married, although very muchly so.

A despatch from Washington says the initiative and the recall of judicial decisions as amendments to the federal Constitution, were proposed Wednesday by Senator Bristow in a resolution laid before the Senate.

The Senator evidently thinks that the people of this great, big, busy country have nothing else to do but study questions of government.

Mayor Alexander, of Los Angeles, California may be hoist on his own petard if some of his disgruntled enemies succeed in their attempt to recall him from office, for the mayor went in on a strictly modern platform with all the trimmings—Omaha Bee.

Some people seem to take a delight in keeping up a turmoil of politics. We suspect the outs in Los Angles are simply trying to get the ins out.

According to the report of State Bank Commissioner Downs some of the directors of the defunct Libertytown, Md., bank borrowed very nearly all of the money on unsecured notes, which reminds us of the slick darky who started a savings bank in which he was president and cashier. He got his friends to deposit their money and then borrowed the whole amount on his individual note.

THE INAUGURATION OF SPELLING CONTESTS

The spelling contests to be inaugurated in the public schools of Carroll county should result in great good to the pupils—and we might add the teachers. Parents now in their fifties have been at a loss to understand why the contests were discontinued. They soon learned, after their children attended the public schools, that their offspring, for some reason or other, were mighty poor spellers and could see no hope of bettering them. Some charge that it was the fault of the teachers, while the latter's friends allege that so many useless "fandangoes" crept into the schools and very little time was left for teaching spelling.

Some years ago a new idea of teaching was introduced in some of the schools. Instead of having the pupil, especially the beginner, spell over the large or hard words of the lesson, he or she was instructed to look at the word or words and endeavor to get a mental picture of the same. The result has not been very encouraging to parents and we are glad to learn of the purpose to go back to a true and tried system.

We are aware of the fact that some scholars will never make good or even fair spellers but they can be given a proper training. Some scholars excel in one study and some in another and it is the ones in which they are a little weak that require more labor of the teacher.

Mr. George F. Morelock, the superintendent of education in this county, is a product of the old spelling bee and we understand won the county prize in a hotly contested one. We may not be able to turn out many of his kind but we are glad the effort is to be made.

Mrs. Walter Crook, of Baltimore, visited Mrs. J. J. Rose of this city Wednesday.

Miss Edith Pentz, of Baltimore, who has been visiting Mrs. John J. Rose, of E. Green street, this city for the past ten days returned home Wednesday.

Placing missionary and church extension work on a practical business basis, Bishop Murray has appointed a committee of business men to pass on all this work in the Diocess of Maryland. This body will correspond to the executive committee of a financial institution. No work will be undertaken without its approval. This plan was recently decided upon by Bishop Murray, but the appointment was not made until Wednesday. The committee will stamp with its approval or disapproval all suggestions for work, but will not do so until its members have made a thorough investigation.

The committee is composed of one layman from each archeaconry and three laymen appointed at large. They are: E. Allen Lycett, of the Archdeaconry of Baltimore; Sterling Galt, of Emmitsburg, Archdeaconry of Cumberland; Frank A. Munroe, Archdeaconry of Annapolis, Randolph Barton, Jr., Archdeaconry of Towson; John R. Bland, B. D. Deford and Graffin Cook, at large. These men will study carefully all the suburbs of Baltimore and decide where churches should be established. They will get property at low rates and can hold them until they are needed. They will also pick out towns and growing villages throughout the diocese where missions should be planted.

Announcement was also made that Harry W. Atkinson has been made treasurer of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society for the Diocse of Maryland. He will handle all funds raised for this work.
