SIDE ONE

My eldest Son has been over from India. He is greatly interested in the work he has been able to effect in the Deccan. He has irrigated a district which had been periodically visited by famine and all its horrors. He is now doing what he can to establish some Christian Missions & so rescue immortal souls from spiritual famine. He has taken his wife out with him, & left 3 of his children with an old trusty friend. His wife has had a miscarriage, but he receives all at the hands a merciful God —

Farewell — with my warmest & best love —

Yours most affectly

J Latham
