to All Saints. He landed in Ireland & has passed on to Scotland. His Church is under repair & enlargement, and it is not yet in a condition to be opened. Thank you, very much, for the book you have sent me by him. I shall receive it in due time. My daughter, Mrs Garland, who greatly interested in your letter, she desires me to convey her warm love to you & dear Mrs Morris. May remember me most affectionately to your dear partner. May God, that the God & Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may bless us with all spiritual blessings & bring us all safely to that Rest which remains for the people of God.
