SIDE ONE

Woburn
March 21st 1875.

My dear Mr Morris
Thinking you will have seen the notice of our dear Father's illness, I send a line to relieve anxiety, as far as I can, & to ask some kind friend to remember him so well, & for us his anxious family.
A week ago Yesterday Father had a slight attack of paralysis of the right side - the leg is still helpless, the arm has risen, & has almost entire control over it. His mind has been clear, & he has been blessed with the peace
