SIDE TWO

that passeth understanding - The Lord keep him perfectly quiet, & he sees God in all his own family. So do not let this letter make you think you ought to come on to see him.
It is let you hear from him & to ask your sympathy & prayers for my precious Father that I write.
Sister Julia sends affectionate messages of love - & Mrs Johns would have her message if she knew I was writing - The rush of anxiety has made my hand very unsteady & I beg your indulgence for this letter - Yours with respect & affn A. V. D. Maxon - March 23. Mr Johnson Father continues to improve - He sends love to you -
