Again am I called upon to record the death of an aged citizen neighbor and friend in the person of Mr. William J. Eisenbrown, who peacefully passed away at 8.30, Sunday morning, aged 80 years and five months. He had been in ailing health for a long time and gradually as time wore on he became more and more feeble so that his weakened constitution could not battle with an attack of grip, but yielded to death's demands. Billy Eisenbrown as he was familiarly called was a quiet unassuming gentleman, an enemy of none but a friend of all and always ready to greet them with his usual cheerful manner. He was a cigar maker by trade and at one time conducted a confectionery store in connection with his manufacturing. He was a republican in politics, though conservative in his views. He was a consistent member of the reformed church and a regular attendant until frail nature kept him at home His remains were laid to rest in a family lot on Wednesday. Dr. Land officiating. Messrs. J. W. Snyder, Peter Helfric, G. W. Everhart, H. B. Burgoon, George A. Shower, A. E. B. Myers, pallbearers. W. L. F. Burgman had charge of the funeral.

He was the last one of his home family and is survived by his widow and neices and nephews.

There was a large congregation at the communion service in Trinity Reformed Church on Easter Sunday morning. Dr. Land was at his best as he brought forth the gospel truths from Mark 16, latter clause of 3rd verse and made them applicable to the interesting occasion, after which he administered the communion to 175 or more persons. The decorations of ferns and potted plants did credit to the decorators and added much to the cheer of the worshippers. The anthems were fine and rendered worthy of special mention.

Mrs. Charles Loats who has had heart trouble for several years, since the sudden death of her daughter a fortnight ago, has been in highly nervous condition, was found by her husband at 2 A. M. UNION MILLS

Mr. John H. Frock, recently cut down a huge chestnut tree on his farm, the dimensions of which were, 62 feet high, 5 1|2 feet across the stump and 16 feet in circumference. Three men were engaged one and three-fouth hours in sawing it down. The first four foot length from the trunk of the tree made three quarters of a cord of wood, and the entire product of the tree was over five cords of wood, two ten foot saw logs and three posts and there was left over a large forked knot that couldn't be split, that would have made about three quarters of a cord more.

In the late conference apointments, Rev. W. E. Watkins, pastor of the Littlestown charge of the M. E. Church, of which Moorhead M. E. The new Baltimore pastor has been in charge of the church at Taneytown since he was ordained at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore City, in 1899.
