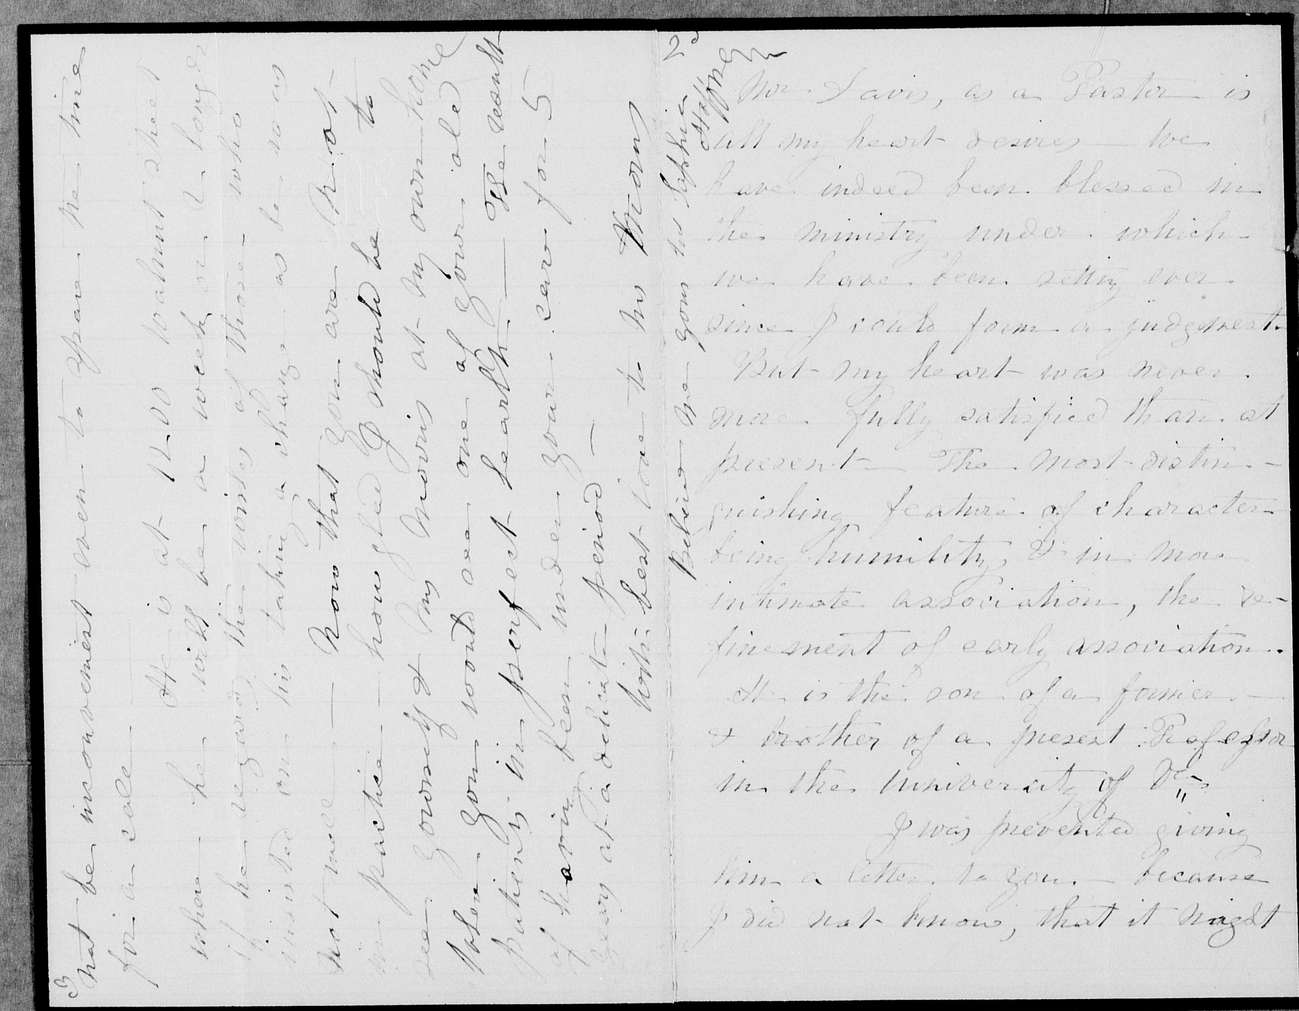
SIDE TWO



Mr Davis, as a Pastor is all my heart desires — We have indeed been blessed in the ministry under which we have been sitting ever since I took form a judgment. But my heart was never more fully satisfied than at present — The most distinguishing feature of character being humility, & in our intimate association, the refinement of early association. He is the son of a former & brother of a present Professor in the University of Va.

I was prevented giving him a letter to you — because I did not know, that it might
