The Sentinel received this morning a communication telling of the removal of a citizen of Sandyville to a farm near Warfieldsburg, but the writer ommited to give his or her name, simply signing the communication, "Subscriber." Being enonymous the letter under the Sentinel's rules, cannot be used.

Faith Reformed Church, Baltimore, of which Rev. A. S. Weber, D. D., is pastor, seems to be in a very prosperous condition. A class of 20 was confirmed at Easter, 5 were received by letter and 3 by re-profession. Easter offerings amounted to $392.91. 460 persons communed. Dr. Weber was a former pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city.

The following persons have had the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone installed in their residences: Mrs. Emily A. Norris, Union Bridge, Union Bridge 13-31 N. C. Erb, Westminster, Westminster 275-k; John S. Lively, Louisville, Westminster 805-4; Lester S. Patterson, Louisville, Westminster 805-12; John W. Stonesifer, near Reese, Westminster 822-22; Edvin L. Hess, Harney, Taneytown 11-6; John W. Fream, Harney, Taneytown 11-5; Harry Coplan, Hampstead, Hampstead 123-2 and Dr. J. A. Zepp, Westminster, Westminster 133.

Another freight train wreck occured on the Western Maryland Railway on Wednesday. The scene of it was the bridge over the Monocacy river. The engine tender and a car crossed the bridge safely then the cars in the rear of them were derailed and cut the crossties to pieces, badly damaged the bridge and, to the number 6 or, 8 were piled up in a wrecked condition. The train due here from Balitmore at 5.33 P. M., was sent around by way of Hanover and Gettysburg. Are the many wrecks on this road the result of hard luck or bad management?

President Lewis, of Western Maryland College, reported yesterday to the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, in session at Lynchburg, Va., that the college has an enrollment of 244 students. He said rates must be raised to meet increased expenses. He expressed the hope that the endowmnt of $100,000, for which the college is working will be reached in five years. Rev. Dr. Elderdice, president of Westminster Theological Seminary, reported 25 students in that institution, of whom 10 are in the senior class. Nine conferences are represented by the students.

While the flood through Ohio and Indiana has subsided, the territory over which it passed presents a scene of desolation and many people are homeless. It is doubtful whether the generous contributions for their relief are sufficient and those of our citizens who have the inclination to help the unfortunate cannot make a mistake by adding to the fund. The loss of life is not nearly as great as at first reported, but the exact number who have perished will never be known. The total may not exceed 1,000. Ohio and Indiana however, have not been the only sufferers by the flood. Many places along the Ohio river, on both its banks, have been inundated, lives lost and property destroyed. At Cairo, at the mouth of the river, the water was yesterday higher than ever before known. Days have been spent by thousands of people, raising and strengthening the levee which protects the river from inundation, and the lates report holds out the hope that it will withstand the tremendous pressure of the water surging against it.

Western Maryland College put up a creditable game against the Orioles yesterday, but was easily beaten by the professionals, the score being 10 to 0. The collegians were able to register two hits, one off Vickers, who pitched the first three innings, and the other off Davidson, who worked the remainder of the game.

It was Dunn's idea to give Davidson a thorough workout, so when the youngster was sent to the mound Bill Bergen relieved Lidgate behind the bat. Bergen coached Davidson along and took him at a slow pace, but the Medford High School twirler was as wild as a hawk at times. However, when the plate was threatened he steadied down and got his shoots working. That Davidson has a lot of stuff on the ball there is no doubt, and seven of the collegians were retired on strikes. However, the pitcher almost evened up matters, for he passed six men.

Meyer, who twirled the whole game for Western Maryland, had very little speed, so the Birds passed another uneventful afternoon. He had a little spitter which teased the Orioles, and while he did not fool a man only three bingles were made off his delivery in the last five innings.

The Birds played as if they were tired out and after scoring all their runs in the second, third and fourth sessions they showed no signs of life. Even Maisel, who is usually full of ginger, had little to say and played no pranks.

Western Maryland's team played a pretty nice defensive game, for while little Bowers had three boots he handled five other chances well and not another man made an error.

TAYLORSVILLE

Now that Mr. March has had his blow perhaps we shall have some fine weather. April mingles Sun and shower, brings the modest woodland flower.

We are glad to report the return of our former pastor, Rev. H. C. Hall, for another year. Thanks Dr. Watson.

Moving day Tuesday, but our community being satisfied not many changes took place.

Mesdames Ernest and Thomas Barnes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Buckman.

Mr. James Barnes held the lucky number which drew the $8.00 horse blanket given by A. J. Stem as one of the prizes at his sale Saturday.

Sunday school, Sunday 9 A. M. Epworth League 7.30 P. M.

Our Sunday school will be reorganized on the afternoon of April 13th, 1913. At night the Epworth League will elect officers for the ensuing term.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stem celebrated their tin wedding Tuesday afternoon. About 100 guests were invited but the stormy condition of the weather kept many from attending.

THE NEW MT. UNION UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH DEDICATED

The Mt. Union United Brethren in Christ Church was organized about 1853 and about two years after that built a little log church size 28 by 30 ft., and placed therein slab bences. Last August the congregation took away the old structure and began at once to replace it with the New Modern Structure which was dedicated to the worship of God free of debt on last Sunday, March 30th, 1913. The old church was known to many as "Slab Union" because of the slab benches that were orginially in the building. Later new pews were placed in the church which were so uncomfortable that no one could think of sleeping on them. The new church was erected at a cost of about $2,000 and the same amount in cash and donations of lumber and labor are in the treasurer's hands, with the exception of about $100.00 which will soon be paid. The dedicatory services were largely attended and about $360.00 the remainder of debt, was secured, which means ample for the erection of a new cemetery fence which will be erected in the near future.

Lumber and labor was donated to the value of about $600 by the members and friends of the church. By the liberal help of the friends of the church the building of the new church was made possible.

There was a liberal response by the friends of the church co-operating with the members for which the membership and the pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Strine, are very grateful and they will be glad to render any service they can to any who are in need of help.

Rev. Wm. H. Washinger, D. D., Chambersburg, Pa., Supt. of the Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren in Christ Church, preached the dedicatory sermon and dedicated the church to the worship of God.

Rev. Wm. H. Quigley, a pastor of the church 30 years ago, preached on Saturday evening. Rev. J. P. Koontz, who was its pastor 16 years ago, preached on Sunday morning and the afternoon survice was a platform one at which time, Revs. Washinger, Quigley, Koontz, Daugherty, and the pastor, Rev. Strine, made short addresses.

Rev. Daugherty and Miss Mamie Murray rendered several duets during the day which were highly appreciated. Mr. J. S. Leister had charge of the music. The building committee consisted of the pastor and trustees: Rev. G. W. Strine, Pres.; Jos. H. Lippy, Sec.; L. F. Leister, Treas.; Geo. W. Walker, J. S. Leister and J. R. Houck. Mr. Charles Reed is pres. of the Y. P. C. U. and Mr. Alvah Leister is one of the stewards who acted as secretary during the day and rendered valuable service.

With the donations of lumber and labor there were a number of other gifts presented to the congregation by the following persons: Mrs. Benedick, three beautiful bookmarks; J. R. Houck, a New Bible; by Mrs. J. W. Ruby, two beautiful collection trays, and by Mr. Harry I. Lippy, of Greenmount, a clock which will be placed in the church in the near future, and a communion table, from Mr. T. J. Hunt, Hampstead, Md.

Thus the old church is gone but is replaced with a modern new church which is so well built that it will stand for the coming fifty years. It is a credit to the congregation and community and without a doubt great good will be accomplished through the faithful labors of these noble people, who have worked so heorically to build this house of worship. Rev. Geo. W. Strine, the pastor, of Greenmount, is engaged in revival services in the new church at the present time.

The warm weather of the early part of last week prompted many persons to begin their Spring gardening, the ground being in excellent condition for that work.

The barn of Mr. Aaron Green was burned Monday last. He lost about eighty bushels of wheat and ten tons of hay, and a large rick of fodder. A very high wind was blowing at the time and the house caught fire several times, but the persistent efforts of the neighbors saved it. M., held its annual banquet on Thursday night which was largely attended. On Saturday night they entertained and banqueted the Pikesville Star Lodge. It is estimated that it was the largest gathering of people in the past twenty years.

SPELLING CONTEST OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The series of spelling contests arranged for the public schools of the county has been completed, and two representatives for each election district have been chosen to take part in the general contest to be held in the High School Building at Westminster, on April 11.

THE FLOOD CONTRIBUTIONS

Immense sums of money have been contributed in aid of the sufferers by the flood in Ohio and Indiana. So large was the amount that early this week the Governor of Ohio announced that no more was needed in that State, which was able to meet the demands of the situation without further aid from outside sources. This announcement naturally prompted those who contemplated contributing to refrain from doing so. As a consequence the banks of this city received but small sums in response to the appeal of Mayor Walsh, the aggregate reaching only $47. Of this amount $23 was received at the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank, including $16 from Trinity Lutheran Church, near Smallwood, $19 at the First National Bank, $4 at the Westminster Savings Bank, and $1 at the Union National Bank.

The soldiers of the little kingdom of Montenegro, in Eastern Europe, who have been besieging the City of Scutari, in the province of that name, a strongly fortified place, for several months, have succeeded in capturing its principal fortification and are said to be in practical control of the city. The victory was achieved by the sacrifice of 200 men, who climbed the mountain side under a murderous fire from the Turkish guns, cut the entangling wires which obstructed their movements, and getting into close quarters threw bombs among the Turks. Their daring feat was followed up and the great fort captured. But not a man of the 200 escaped. For some reason it seems the leading powers of Europe have objected to the campaign against Scutari, but the Montenegrins have perservered and achieved their purpose. Scutari is a small province, just south of Montenegro, and is under Turkish domination. It has a population of over 200,000, while the city contains about 35,000 or 40,000. Both the province and Montenegro lie opposite Southern Italy, on the Adriatic sea. It would be worse than a shame to Europe if the Montenegrins shall not be permitted to retain the territory they have conquered at the sacrifice of so many of the flower of its chivalrous soldiers. They are a courageous and daring people.

"He certainly is. He beat up four bill collectors yesterday so they can't come back for six months."—Filegende Blatter.
