SIDE TWO

of your ~~approach~~ approaching of the presence at your congress of one of our eminent authorities. I do not like the idea of his going to an hotel. But I know that than with in this matter act for the best. He is an agreable, ~~an~~ unassuming excellent person; a little younger than Sam; one whom I have known and loved for the last 30 years.

A letter addressed to him at any of the Post offices, at Quebec, Montreal, or Niagara, will find him in the ~~a~~ interval between the present time ~~and~~ and the Congress.

I expect, on reaching New York, to go pretty speedily to Burlington and Atlantic City. I may possibly beat Sherman home on First day – thence on Second day towards Ohio; and so on through such of our Western G. M's as the way may open for. It will be very delightful to see you all, when the right time comes. My beloved brother Isaac is very nicely. He said some as he bid me farewell; "I wish I was going with you Benny; – but I must not now venture". I think that he might have come: we have had a delightful company

With love to all your uncle, I am thy attached friend
