Sore Throat Wisdom

If every mother could realize the danger that lurks behind every case of sore throat, she wouldn't rest until she had effected a cure every time a child has it.

Your family physician will verify the statement that it is a positive fact that every child with sore throat is in immediate danger of contracting Croup, Quinsy, Tonsilitis or Diphtheria, and is not removed from that danger until the throat is cured. Think of it!

Liniments or outward application of medicines do not and cannot cure the ailment, though they may offer temporary relief. Neither can you cure sore throat with a cough syrup or a cold cure.

To cure, you must get at the seat of the disease, removing the cause. Nothing does that so quickly, safely and surely as TONSILINE. A single dose of TONSILINE taken upon the first appearance of sore throat may save long weeks of sickness, great expense, worry, even death. TONSILINE is the stitch in time.

Use a little sore throat wisdom and buy a bottle of TONSILINE today. You may need it tomorrow.

TONSILINE is the standard sore throat remedy—best known and most effective and most used. Look for the long necked fellow on the bottle when you go to the drug store to get it. 25 cents and 50 cents. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

Evil of Idleness

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times)

No matter what one's station in life may be, if he is habitually idle from choice, his character in every direction undergoes disintegration. If he be dependent on daily toil as a means of support, he is likely to become a criminal and prey on his fellow-men. If he be able to live without work, he will, in all probability, become morally feeble or dangerous. Idleness is far more potent in its influence upon character than is either earlier training or environment. The first a man who works may rise above; to the second he may be superior. American character is derived from ancestors who were so busy hands and brains building a great nation that few of the corrupting and enfeebling vices of the Old World idle classes found lodgment here. As a consequence, our forefathers were a sturdy race of men and women. They may have been narrow and Puritanical, but they worked to achieve for us a country rich in resources and in safety. If idleness follows wealth it will be transmitted rapidly to those who are not wealthy, and sensuous ease or vicious crime will sap the life of the American nation.

Work is the panacea for many of the social evils of today. It is well that we should lift the burden of toil from those shoulders unable to bear the excessive load, but it is well, also, that we should remember that idleness is far more dangerous and destructive to character, and even to prosperity, than is the bugbear of overwork.

CAN YOU GUESS?

Seated on the grass in the midst of the picnic party, he was spinning the latest yarns.

"I say," he remarked to those assembled, "I bet you can't answer this riddle."

"Well what is it?" asked a chorus of voices.

"Can you name an animal that has eyes and cannot see, legs and cannot walk, but can jump as high as the Eiffel Tower?"

Everybody raked their brains and there was a deep silence for a moment.

"I don't know," remarked someone. "I give it up."

The rest of the party also signified their inability to solve the riddle.

"The answer," said the funny man, is a wooden horse. It has the eyes and cannot see, and legs and cannot walk."

"Yes; but how does it jump as high as the Eiffel Tower?" Came the triumphant shout.

"The Eiffel Tower," said the funny man, as he made preparations for hurried departure, "can't jump at all!"—St. Paul Dispatch.

The Florentine Band

AT THE 1913 CHAUTAUQUA.

The twenty-three dark-faced Florentines, every one of them talent to the finger tips, now make up Signor Pontrelli's great company. Signor Lawrence Pontrelli, who has toured in the past with such bands as Liberati's, Brooks' Marine, of Chicago; Sorentino's, Rosatti's, of New York; and the United States Marine, of Washington, has made use of all his rich experience in training the Florentines. They play just the numbers that appeal to the crowd irresistibly. The supurb swing with which they carry off the selections is the highest compliment to Signor Pontrelli's leadership. The Florentines will set the whole town humming They always do!

MANCHESTER

The entertainmen of the Willing Workers' Aid Society, of Trinity Reformed church, attracted a large crowd to the I. O. O. F. Hall where they were entertained by the society with the play, "Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party," with the following cast: Aunt Jerusha Dow, Mrs. M. E. Gettier; Hepzibah Spooner, Mrs. Kate Shower; Hannah Pike, Mollie Brilhart; Johana Hines, Maggie Brilhart; Rachel Gray, Mrs. Wm. Lloyd; Patience Peabody, Ellon Weaver; Mrs. Simon Stubbs, Mrs. Walter W. Wentz; Drisalla Thompkins, Fannie Shower, Charity Cooper, Mrs. John A. Abkins; Mrs. Deacon Simpkins, Reta Meuning; Aron Pride, Sadie Masenhimer; Phoebe Mirando Pride, Corinne Sherman; John Dow, Charles J. Everhart; Deacon Simpkins, Charles Mitten; Squire Pride, J. B. Baker; Preacher Loveboy, Samuel Abkin, who had ressurrected all the styles from the 16th century to put into the play, the mirth and merriment. This was followed by a recitation and a little play stratagem that was O. K. Miss May Musselman filled the intermissions with fine selections on the piano. The ice cream, lunch and cake tables were well patronized so that at the close, the president announced the gross receipts to be $43.70. It was an enjoyable affair.

We have had another sad death in the person of Mrs. Ephriam Trout who passed away on Monday morning aged 87 years. She was a great sufferer from kidney trouble and often it was thought she could not survive the attacks, but then she would rally again and be able to attend to her domestic duties. She was a devoted mother and particularly to a daughter now aged fifty or more years. When the daughter was four years of age she was taken wit hspasms and was not expected to live during the night, but she rallied and was an imbecile and during all these years she was a constant care. For several years she has been closely confined to her bed, yet the devoted mother and sister have never faltered but have always been ready to administer to her wants. She followed her husband and several sons to their last resting place, but under all these afflictions she bowed with humble resignation to the will of Him who doeth all things well. Her remains were laid away to rest Wednesday in a family lot. Rev. J. B. Lau officiated.

Jacob Wink was the funeral director.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Miller on South Main street celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage Saturday evening 26th inst. They had the home nicely decorated with apple blossoms. 1881-1913 was prominent on the porteirs in silver figures while the dining room table was banked with a silver mound on which were 25 candles arranged to form the figures 2 and 5. The bride and groom, were in their happiest mood, greeting their friends as they arrived group after group and extended their congratulations. Twenty posters were pinned on the walls and curtains and each contained a saying from which a girls name was to be written viz: What character do you find in woman seldom in man: Ans. Grace. What name spells the same backwards? Ans. Anna etc. This excited quite an interest during the guessing period The most of the contestants had answered the mottoes upon cards supplied with the numbers. The committee awarded the prize (a doll) to Mr. Wm. Culp. At 10 P. M. tables were placed in the rooms around which the guests were grouped and refreshments were enjoyed. The first course was salads, cheese straws and harlequin ice cream, cake and coffee to which all did full justice amid mirth and merriment. The midnight hour was coming in sight ere the good nights were said. Those of the company were: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Houck, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Motter, William Culp, Ellen Weaver, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brilhart, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Geiselman, Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Lamotte, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H Shower, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Musselman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shower, Mrs. Mary E. Gettier, Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, Mrs. C. M. Masenhimer, Misses Sadie E. Masenhimer, Lizzie, Emma and Addie Trump, Fannie Shower, Dr. T. S. Land, G. S. Motter, Stanley Boulus, Geo. A. Crouse and J. B. Baker.

One of our bachelors gave his friends a surprision Thursday last by slipping away on the early train and meeting his fiancee and then journeyed to Towson and back to Glyndon to the home of Rev. McFadden where they were united in the bonds of holy wedlock, and Miss Julia Shower became Mrs. William S. Hoffman. They arrived at the home of the groom on North Main street by the late train.

Mrs. H. N. Burgoon was appointed District Deputy of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18 I. O. O. F. by the officers of the Rebekah Assembly.

Dr. T. S. Land will hold communion services in Trinity Reformed Church Whit Sunday. Preparatory and confirmation services Saturday previous at 2 P. M.

Miss Maggie Fuhrman and Mrs. Charles Stump spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Baltimore.

Messrs H. S. Musselman and Frank Slack are having water put into their homes, The Westminster Hardware company have the boilers and material at the homes to install air pressure plants.

Dr. T. S. Land and Charles Loats drove to Littlestown to the Hoffman Orphan Home Tuesday to arrange for the putting of the two orphan children of Mrs. Mame Bendig in the home. After the death of Mrs. Loats, the grandmother, they became the wards of Mr. Loats.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Greenholtz spent Thursday with Mr. G's mother at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Wesley Snyder, on North Main street.

Mr. John C. Denner, Jr., represented Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23 I. O. O. F. at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in Baltimore last week.

At a regular meeting of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18 I. O. O. F. Tuesday evening, Captain and Mrs. Abbot, of Queen Esther degree team of Baltimore, were present and gave instructions in the degree work. They were present at the institution of the Lodge and aided in conferring the degree on 47 charter members. After the closing of the lodge refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffe were enjoyed during the social hour.

UNION MILLS

The grist mill of James C. Geiman, with all of its contents, located on Deep Run, one mile east of this place, was entirely destroyed by fire, about sundown, last Saturday evening. Mr. Geiman is unable to account for the cause of the fire. He first discovered flames issuing from the roof of the building, which he battled against as long as he could, but was unable to cope with them single handed. The mill, which was of wood, was soon a mass of fire and the brilliant illumination promptly brought together a large concourse of the neighbors who quickly moved the furniture from Mr. Geiman's dwelling which was several times on fire from the flames which were driven directly towards it by a decidely unfavorable wind, and its total destruction was only averted by the heroic efforts of the amateur bucket brigade, under the direction of Bernard W. Ecker. The wide spreading ash tree,a veritable giant of the forest, that stood below the mill, was in a blaze for a long time and it is feared that its inviting shade will never again afford a resting place for the weary traveler.

Besides the mill, Mr. Geiman's hog pen and chicken house were consumed. He has $1400 insurance on the mill, in the Dug Hill company of which he will receive $1375.

This mill was one of the old land marks of Myers' district. It was formerly known as Study's and then as Wolf's mill. In days gone by part of it was used as a fulling mill.

From exhaustion and nervousness caused by overexertion in hastening to the fire, Mrs. Luther Marsh fell in a dead faint soon after she reached the scene. Emergency remedies were applied, which revived her sufficiently to be removed to her home where she was later treated by Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel.

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Reinecker, were brought from York, Pa., last Monday and interred in the cemetery at Silver Run. Mrs. Reinecke was a daughter of the late Christian Yingling and she was born and reared in this village. Mr. Martin Yingling, our oldest resident, is her brother. Another brother, Mr. Paul Yingling, resides in Westminster. Deceased was the second wife of the late Wm. H. Reinecker, well known in his day as a prominent and influential republican. After her marriage she and her husband lived on a farm near here, when she made her home with her only son, H. Wirt Reinecker. After continuing on the farm for a few years the family moved to Hanover, Pa., and then to York, Pa., where Mrs. Reinecker an unassuming, christian women, closed her earthly career. She had attained the age of eighty-three years. She was a devout member of the Reformed church and the pastor of that church at Silver Run, Rev. S. C. Hoover, conducted the funeral services. Edward Groft was funeral director.

On the morning of the 25th inst., Paul Richard Bankert, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Bankert, an unusually bright and attractive child, peacefully closed his eyes in death, following a lingering illness which extended over a period of nearly four months. He was one year, seven months and eleven days old. The funeral took place at Silver Run cemetery on Sunday afternoon last, and was conducted by Rev. S. C. Hoover, pastor of the Reformed church of which the father of the little boy is a prominent elder.

Messrs Arthur W. Feeser and John T. Dutterer, of Silver Run, have purchased automobiles.

DEEP RUN

Quite a change in the weather the last few days.

Some of our farmers have finished planting corn while others are still plowing and preparing their ground.

The masons have finished the walls for the house and barn for Mr. Nelson C. Zepp.

Mr. John W. Zepp has one of his engines hooked to the road plow for Mr. Raymond Stonesifer to scrape the road the last few days.

Mr. William Belt has a patch of corn that is 2 in. high all over the piece. Mrs. Belt also has sweet potato vines that are over 3 ft. in length. Pretty good for so early in the season.

On Saturday evening, April 26, the largest mill of Mr. James Geiman, better known as Wolf's mill, was burned to the ground with all its contents, consisting of besides customers chop and whole grain), all of Mr. Geoman's potatoes, jarred fruit, lard, sausage and other provender. Also the hen house with about half of the chickens, and a new mower for Mr. Jacob Warehime. The building was insured in the Dug Hill Fire Insurance Co., for $1400. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. Peter Dull is slowly improving from an attack of vertigo.

Messrs Leister and Yingling have purchased 18 acres of woodland from Mr. Milton Bankert and are peeling bark on same.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flickinger made a business trip to Manchester Monday.

Mr. Milton Bankert killed 2 large black snakes one day last week. One measured 5 feet and the other 4 feet 10 inches. The third one just as large escaped.

Grain fields are looking fine at this time.

UNIONTOWN

Mrs. Mary C. Cookson has returned to her home here after spending the winter with M. John Lynch's family, in Westminster.

Mrs. Jesse F. Billmyer is visiting her children in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Clayton Hann and daughter Nellie, left Wednesday for Philadelphia where they will spend some time with Cortland Hoy's family.

William Rodkey and wife spent Sunday in Gettysburg.

Miss Rebecca Thomas and Miss Grace Firor, of Baltimore, spent part of last week with Mrs. Martha Singer.

Thomas Zepp and family were guests of their aunt, Mrs. Emily Baust Sunady.

George Diehl, of Hagerstown, spent a few days with his grandfather, Wm. Bankard.

J Thomas Haines, Will Hiteshow, Harry Routson, Ralph Romspert, Clarence Billmyer and son Wilbur, and Charles Rodkey, all of Baltimore, were visitors in town this week.

Mrs. Bud Haines has returned from her stay in the city.

Oil has been put on our street, and we are glad to be rid of the dust nuisance, for with the automobiles and motor cycles, we were getting rather more than our allotted amount of dirt.

BEST MEDICINE FOR COLDS

When a druggist recommends a remedy for colds, throat and lung troubles, you can feel sure that he knows what he is talking about. C. Lover, Druggist, of Marion, Ohio, writes of Dr. King's New Discovery: "I know Dr. King's New Discovery is the best throat and lung medicine I sell. It cured my wife of a severe bronchial cold after all other remedies failed." It will do the same for you if you are suffering with a cold or any bronchial, throat or lung cough. Keep a bottle on hand all the time for everyone in the family to use. It is a home doctor. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all Druggists.
