PROF. CHAS. H. JOURDAN DEAD

He Was The Oldest Instructor Of Mount St. Mary's College.

Frederick, Md., April 29—Charles Henry Jourdan, professor of mathematics at Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, and the oldest instructor at the institution, died Tuesday morning after an illness of a month. He was 83 years old. He had been connected with the college since 1865.

Professor Jourdan was born in Forcalquir Province, France, in 1830. He taught in the public schools in France until 1860, when he immigrated to this country and spent four years in Montreal, Canada, teaching French and mathematics in some of the largest schools of that city. In 1865 he took charge of the department of mathematics, physics and chemistry at Mount St. Mary's. Later he spent a year in Parras, State of Coahuila, Mexico, and four years at Seaton Hall, South Orange, New Jersey.

Returning to Mount St. Mary's in 1895, he won for himself an enviable position in educational circles. In 1868, when Cornell University was founded, he was invited by President White, the first head of the institution, to accept the chair of mathematics. Owing to his devotion to Mount St. Mary's he declined. In 1871 he married Miss Adelaide Dielman, daughter of John Casper Henry Dielman, the composer, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank A. Roddy, of Emmitsburg, and Miss Edith Jourdan.

The funeral took place this morning from the college chapel, where services were conducted by President Bernard J. Bradley.

REV. J. H. STRAW

Rev. J. H. Straw for a number of years engaged in the Missionary work in Africa died at the Lutheran Mission at Monrovia, Africa Sunday morning according to a telegram received by Dr. J. A. Singmaster, at Gettysburg, Pa.

He was a graduate of the local institutions leaving Gettysburg College in 1899.

He is survived by a wife who was Miss Cashman of Gettysburg and a daughter who were with him in Africa.

SUES WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY FOR $10,000

Mr. Frank J. Power, of this city, by his attorneys, E. Oliver Grimes, Jr., and Maloy, Brady and Embert, of Baltimore, docketed a suit against the Western Union Telegraph Company on Wednesday, in the City Court of Baltimore, for $10,000 for failure to pay him the full amount of a sum wired him to El Paso, Texas, by his brother, from Albany, N. Y. The amount wired, he alleges, was $70, of which he only received $20. As a consequence, having been without funds sufficient to pay his way to Westminster, he was obliged to walk and ride on freight cars for most of the way until he reached Norfolk, Va., where he obtained money to make his appearance presentable and provide for the remainder of his journey. As the money was wired him in January and his long tramp was in cold weather he naturally encountered hardships and suffered severely.

Mr. Power reached home last week and was here for a day or two with his family.

OSCAR T. BLACK CHARGES HIM WITH ALIENATING WIFE'S AFFECTIONS.

Samuel Kahn, clothing dealer, 19 North Gay street, was named as corespondent in a suit for absolute divorce brought in Circuit Court No. 2 Tuesday by Oscar T. Black, against his wife, Mrs. Effie C. Black, and was also sued for $25,000 damages by Black in the Court of Common Pleas for alleged alienation of Mrs. Black's affections. Both actions were brought through G. Guy Wilson, attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. Black were married December 8, 1896, and separated on Thursday of last week, when they were living at the Warwick Apartments, on Madison avenue. Black is an engineer in the employ of the Western Maryland Railway Company.

Miss Ethel Study spent Friday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Study.

TANEYTOWN

Mr. Oliver T. Shoemaker purchased a Ford five passenger automobile last Thursday. It was delivered to him in the evening.

Mr. Samuel J. Renner also purchased a Ford runabout automobile which was delivered to him first of this week.

Harry S. Koons and George E. Knox, of Baltimore, visited town several days this week.

Mr. Samuel Baumgardner, of Fairfield, Pa., spent Sunday with his brother, Geo. W. Baumgardner.

Mr. Geo. W. Baumgardner has been ill for sometime. Mrs. Ortha Anders, of Woodsboro, spent several days this week visiting friends in Taneytown.

Mrs. Ellen Ourand, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her mother, Mrs. John J. Crapster.

A slight explosion occurred in the acetylene gass plant this Thursday morning. Mr. Charles L. Kuhns, the gass man, was making gass and when he was about to pour carbide into the mixer from a can, the can which he had hold of exploded, demolishing the can and scattering the contents over the building. Cooney got off with a skinned nose and a few cuts on his hands and arms. It was a narrow escape for Cooney.

The engine and boiler and other machinery for the ice plant is being unloaded from the cars to day.

Pennsylvania is to test the mother's pension system, Governor Tener having Tuesday approved the act recently passed by the Legislature providing for county systems of pensions for mothers under the administration of a commission of from five to seven women, to be named by the Governor for each county availing itself of the provisions of the law.

The trustees are to investigate all cases and may recommend payments to any abandoned mother or widow who is unable to maintain her children at home.

Payments are to be made monthly, and the combined maximum payment shall not exceed $12 a month for one child, $20 a month for two children, $25 a month for three children, and $5 a month for each additional child.

An appropriation of $200,000 is made for the purposes of the new law.

CITIZENS' MEETING

The meeting called by Mayor David E. Walsh to nominate three candidates for members of the Common Council of this city, to be voted for at the municipal election on Monday next, was held last night at Firemen's Hall, but did not accomplish the purpose for which it was intended. It was called to order by Mayor Walsh and Joseph D. Brooks, Esq., was appointed chairman. He was about to explain its object when Charles O. Clemson, Esq., moved that the names of all those who might be suggested as candidates be printed on a ticket that the voters might make their choice at the polls. While that was not the phraseology of the motion it conveys the meaning intended by Mr. Clemson. A counter motion to the effect that the meeting proceed to nominate the three candidates to be voted for was made by Mr. John Stem. This, it is said, was agreed to, but an exciting discussion arose and upon motion of Michael E. Walsh, Esq., the meeting was adjourned without further action.

Two tickets are in the field, the issue between them being according to popular gossip, approval or disapproval of the street opening policy of the present council. On the side favoring the council's policy the candidates are:

WALTER H. DAVIS,
ATLEE W. WAMPLER,
JOHN J. REESE.

The opposition will be headed Citizens' Ticket and the candidates are:

CHARLES HESSON,
FRANCIS J. ALBAUGH,
FRANK T. SHAEFFER.

It is rumored that some other question than that suggested above is also an issue in the contest, but, if so, it is of a personal nature and does not go to the real merits of the controversy.

This may be added: Every citizen entitled to vote, whatever his opinion regarding the real question at issue, should cast his ballot at the election on Monday.

OIL MAIN STREET

This was the exclamation of a prominent resident who has a handsome residence and who like many other citizens, finds the clouds of dust often swirling along the street insufferable. The tarring process resorted to last year did not prove entirely effective. Oiling, it is alleged, has been tried successfully in many cities and small towns and is comparatively inexpensive. It is at least worth a trial.

Preaching this Sunday at 10.30 A. M. Epworth League 7 P. M.

SMALLWOOD

There were quite a number of the members of the Deer Park Ladies' Aid Society present at the last meeting, which was held at the parsonage in honor of our returning minister. Each member brought a token of remembrance with them. The usual routine of business was tranacted. A lookout committee was appointed by the presidents, consisting of three sons, viz: Mesdames Mary Beard, Laura Wagner and Mamie Shipley. Their duty is to see to the necessary refurnishing of the parsonage and to be appointed each year as the new officers take their places. A few small articles were ordered bought for the parsonage. The society was invited and accepted the invitation to meet at Mrs. Mamie Shipley's Thursday, May 29th. It then adjourned singing our closing hymn, "God be with you till we meet again." After the meeting we had a real good social time. Refreshments, consisting of cake, lemonade and coffee, were served in abundance. The members seemed reluctant to leave, but as duties called them else where they, one after another, after shaking hands with the minister and his wife, departed for their respective homes.

It is the Women's order P. O. of A. that is going to hold a strawberry and ice cream festival May 31st. When it was put in the items before it was put in as the P. O. S. of A. and that is the mens order. We want the ladies to all help so we wish the correction made.

Mr. Harvey Arnold spent Sunday with Mr. Chas. A. Wagner.

Mexico is still in an unsettled condition and rebels are marching to attack Chihuahua City, capital of the State of that name. The federal forces at Juarez, opposite El Paso, Texas, have been withdrawn and sent to the threatened city and Juarez is now in the possession of the rebels. Numbers of federal troops, according to reports, have deserted to the rebels. President Huerta, who betrayed President Madero to his death, upon the pretext that it would end the insurrection, may yet share the fate of the man who fell a victim to his treachery.
