solving the difficulty and if reasonable men were met by reasonable men doubtless the difficulties might be brought to a satisfactory end but alas theory & practice do not as yet "run upon all fours."

We must continue to pray "give peace in our time o Lord." There is much going on which looks like the coming end – but that has been the case very often nevertheless to those who are looking for these things

I see by the newspapers that you are involved in a political struggle. I almost feared that party spirit in England would have given us trouble – I am thankful to say that in view of a common danger the two parties have come to common sense

Mrs Lyons & I hope to return to Hempstead next week as the
