MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The Republican Central Committee of this county met at the opera house in this city on Wednesday for organization. The attendance was large and much interest in the proceedings was manifested. The most perfect harmony prevailed. Mr. John H. Cunningham was re-elected chairman and was also selected to act as treasurer. Mr. Louis E. Shriver, of Union Mills, was elected secretary and Justice Theodore F. Brown assistant secretary. Plans for the campaign were considered and the following resolutions unanimously adopted:

We, the members of the Republican County Central Committee of Carroll county, in convention assembled, rejoice in the unmistakable evidence of a re-united Republican party. We reaffirm our adherence to the cardinal principles of that party; to the protective tariff policy, that bulwark of the American industries now being ruthlessly destroyed by a Democratic administration, elevated to power by reason of dissensions in the Republican ranks, and yet representing very much less than the majority of the voters of the country. We commend the patriotic adherence to duty of the Honorable William P. Jackson, United States Senator from Maryland, and especially his opposition to the ruinous Underwood tariff bill; and we pledge our unqualified support to the Honorable Thomas Parran for election as the successor to Senator Jackson. We condemn the self-evident effort of Blair Lee to build up for himself in this State a political machine which is calculated to make him the undisputed boss of Maryland, and especially do we condemn his reckless expenditure of money to accomplish that end. We commend the able and patriotic administration of Governor Phillips Lee Goldsborough, and pledge him our support in every laudable undertaking; to that end we pledge our enthusiastic support to Oliver S. Metzerott and Augustus M. Denhard as being in every way qualified to do honor to the Goldsborough administration in the offices respectively of Comptroller and Clerk of the Court of Appeals. We pledge our support for election to the House of Delegates of Maryland from Carroll county to Edward Frank Ely, Melvin W. Routson, Herbert R. Wooden and George B. Knox, the first three of whom served with distinguished ability and success in the last session of the House of Delegates, and deserve a re-election as the proper reward for a public duty faithfully performed. We call upon all citizens and tax-payers in particular to witness that the singularly conscientious, able and economical discharge of his duties as Sheriff of Carroll county from 1909 to 1911, stamps Benjamin D. Kemper as the ideal man to fill the important office of County Commissioner; and in this connection we denounce the over-assessment of Carroll county to the end that it pays into the the State Treasury about 25 per cent too much taxes compared with other counties of the State, in order to furnish the Democratic party of Carroll county its stock argument—a low tax rate. We believe that the integrity and ability of Mr. James M. Stoner especially qualify him for the important office of Sheriff of Carroll county, and we pledge him our undivided support. Believing that in Mr. Charles B. Kephart we have found a man in every way eminently fitted for the responsible office of Treasurer of Carroll county, we promise him our earnest support.

Finally:—Believing that we have a ticket as good as any ever nominated by any party in Carroll county, and conscious of the justice of our cause, we call upon every Republican in Carroll county to "rally 'round the flag" and help to elect our full local ticket and to give a substantial majority to the State candidates.

MANCHESTER

A fine large bull, weighing 1000 lbs., died on Sunday evening from rabies for Mr. Jacob W. Warehime, one mile north from here. About 25 days before he strayed away from the cattle and young Mr. Warehime took two of their dogs to help in bringing him home. During the drive a beagle bit him twice in the face but nothing special was thought of it as the dogs often bit the cattle in their drives on the farm. But the next day this dog went to the home of Mr. W's. son and fought and bit his dog and then left and that was the last heard or seen of him. He was a fine rabbit dog. This then caused suspicion of his being mad. Not until Friday, 18th, was there anything wrong with the bull, but on that day he upset the straw stack, run the chickens out of the barnyard and turned up jack in general. His actions attracted the attention of the family and Mr. W., with due caution, got him into the stable and secured him in his stall with a chain and several ropes. He came to town in the evening and consulted Dr. H. M. Keller, the veternarian, who informed him that his actions indicated rabies and told him to make the animal as secure as possible and wait developments. On Saturday when Dr. K. was called to the home he was fully convinced that the animal was suffering from rabies which fully developed by Sunday morning when he made another visit and at once ordered him killed. This was to have been done in the afternoon but the storm interfered with the plans and at 10.30 he died. On Monday morning he was buried about five feet under ground with all the straw, manure, ropes and chains, while the stalls &c. were burned and covered with lime. The stable was flooded with a disinfectant by the veterinarian and the stable quarantined for 90 days against the other cattle. A coolie and two fine beagle puppies were killed at the home, while young Mr. Warehime killed two dogs and two puppies and his father-in-law, Mr. Allen Lippy, killed his shepherd dog. It was quite a trial for these folks to kill these fine hunting dogs but they did not want to run any risk. Mr. W. wishes to return thanks to his neighbors and friends that assisted him and family during the excitement with the rabid animal. The news of his being mad must have spread far and near as about 400 persons visited the home on Sunday.

On Wednesday as two gentlemen were passing the home of Aunt Lizzie Gettier, who occupies the old homestead on North Main street, they heard moaning but found the house all closed and locked. Relatives were informed who went to the home and got in by the way of the window and found her lying on the floor helpless from mere weakness. Dr. Sherman was called and prescribed for her and she was made comfortable. She is in her 87th year and living all alone. Her sister, Mrs. Schutts, of Baltimore, spent the week's end with her. She is still quite weak.

Our base ball friends were very much disappointed on Saturday as the Glen Rock team did not put in an appearance and teach them a Keystone lesson.

The Dug Hill Fire Insurance Co. held its quarterly meeting on Saturday. Only routine business was transacted.

Miss Lizzie Herr, of Westminster, was a guest of her sisetr, Mrs. Dr. L. Trump.

Mr. Harry Markley, of Harrisburg, was a gnest of Mr. Isaiah Wilderson from Saturday to Tuesday.

On Friday evening Mr. Harve Yingling narrowly escaped serious injury. Mr. H. N. Burgoon was driving his auto South for the station. Y. was coming North at a racing speed in his buggy. The headlights of the auto showed to B. the on coming team and he turned aside but the buggy struck the auto wheel and threw Y. and his little son out. The boy fell under the auto, the springs of the shafts loosened and the horse dashed wild up Main street where he was caught. It turned out that only bruises and a broken buggy resulted.

Miss Laura Burns has been closely confined to her home with bronchial trouble. Her sister, Mrs. N. W. Sellers, of York, spent a week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Weaver, of Gettysburg, spent from Friday to Monday with Miss Fannie G. Ross. Mr. W. who has been in ailing health for several years is now apparently on the way to again become himself.

Master Benjamin Berwager was taken to Baltimore last week by Dr. J. H. Sherman and had enlarged tonsils removed and underwent an operation for nose trouble.

The travel through here on Thursday to the Hanover Fair in autos and vehicles was greater than for a number of years.

Miss Treva Burgoon left for the State Normal School and Pearl Garrity for the W. Md. College last week and Mary Myers for the Frederick Institute on Saturday .

Mr. Charles Brilhart and sons finished cutting and housing their tobacco crop last week which is fairly good. They have been quite successful for some years in raising tobacco and which to Mr. C. Robert Brilhart and brother is a profitable crop from the fact that they use it all in their cigar factory.

Mr. George Reed and workmen are building the home of Mr. Ed. Burgoon and the new house of Jas. Wagaman next to the postoffice.

Miss Laura Myers entertained Miss Treva Wentz, of Hampstead, on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Everhart enjoyed a trip to Frederick on Sunday with C. J. H. Ganter in his auto, returning on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hoffman who spent the summer in Syracuse, N. Y., arrived at the home of their parents on Monday evening. They were glad to be in Maryland, my Maryland.

President Kean, vice-president Starr, warden McLarkie and secretary Jones, of the Rebekah Assembly of Maryland, arrived by the evening train on Tuesday and paid a fraternal visit to Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F. at their regular meeting. After the business was over a period of speech making was indulged in followed by closing the lodge. A committee arranged a number of tables in full Rebekah dress in the room around which the members and their guests gathered and enjoyed refreshments of oysters, sandwiches, salads and coffee during a pleasant social period ere the good nights were said.

The rainfall on Sunday during the storm was the heaviest we have had for months and farmers are taking advantage of the fine condition of the ground and are seeding as most of the large crop of corn is on shocks.

Prof. Stanley Bowlus, principal of the High school, entered upon his duties again last week, assisted by Mr. Penn, Miss Celia M. Shower and Miss Carrie Lamotte, with a fairly good attendance.

A telegram was received by Mr. Geo. A. Crouse notifying him of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Eugene Rizer, at the home of his daughter in Chicago. When Mr. C. left him in the home 4 weeks ago he was a sick man but little did he think the end would come so soon. He was the oldest son of the late Rev. P. Rizer, at one time minister in charge here of the Lutheran Church. He was twice married. He is survived by 5 sons and two daughters. He was buried on Thursday at Fort Madison, Iowa, the resting place of his first wife.

UNION MILLS

Dr. J. H. T. Everhart has traded his dwelling in this village, with about fifteen acres of land, to Weldon R. Nusbaum for his dwelling house and lot and a stipulated sum of money to boot. The deal becomes effective this fall and if Dr. Everhart can suit himself with a home he contemplates moving to Westminster in the near future.

George W. Bankert, Benjamin D. Kemper, Edgar C. Yingling and Harvey S. Morelock, of the Knight of the Mystic Chain, Silver Run, attended the annual meeting of the select castle of Maryland, at Frostburg, Md., last week.

The heavy rains last Sunday turned Big Pipe Creek into a veritable river, about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and a large number of people congregated on the stone bridge to view the suging flood. A flock of guineas belonging to Oliver Shull attempted to fly across the swollen stream when seven of them became exhausted, dropped into the rushing waters and were carried to their death.

After deducting the commission Charles F. Frock, tax collector for our district, has collected $6155.53 of the levy for 1913, which is about one half of the full amount standing on his books.

Russell Earhart has secured a position in the hardware store of Denton S. Gehr, Westminster, and will assume the duties of the place within a week or two.

SMALLWOOD

The immediate vicinity certainly was blessed last Sunday when the storm that wrought havoc in other places, passed over this place without doing any damage.

Mrs. Elias Arnold does not improve. She has the sympathy of the community. Master George Beard is getting along as well as can be expected.

Hurried preparations are being made for the Carroll County Fair October 2, 3, and 4. Mr. T. L. Stine will have his caroussals on the grounds September 27th, so everything will be ready for the Fair in due time. Mr. Coffey is expected on the Monday before the Fair.

The Carrollton Band will furnish the music, which we know will be first class.

Mr. Elmer F. Logue thinks he has the PIG that should be greased as the pig is like the proverbial Irishman's pig, "Little but ould."

The manager of the Fair requests that all persons having exhibits will have them on the grounds by 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 1. Look for the advertisement in this paper, and don't forget the dates, October the 2nd, 3rd and 4th, 1913.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent Thursday, September 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Myerly, when their many friends responded to invitations to a complete surprise in honor of the 52nd anniversary of Mr. Myerly's birth.

Mr. Myerly was at a loss to express his thanks to his many friends. It was a complete surprise to him and was enjoyed very much by all present.

In the center of the table was a large and handsome cake surmounted by 52 candles. All were invited to the dining room to partake of all the good things for the inner man, and after thanking the host and hostess for the pleasant and much enjoyed entertainment, and wishing Mr. Myerly many more such occasions, the guests departed for their homes.

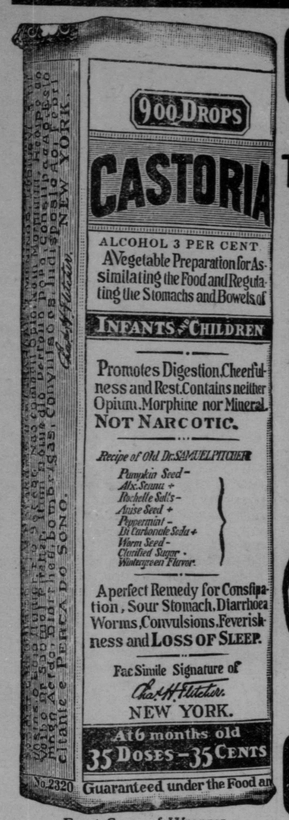

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Jackson Myerly, John H. Brown and family, James Robertson, Scott N. Lloyd, Calvin Cook, Wm. Ecker, John Lovell, George Harris, James Raymond and family, David Raymond and family, Harry G. Lambert and family, Howard R. Bower and family, J. A BIRTHDAY POUND SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Coppersmith, of near Bachman's Valey, Thursday, Sept. the 18th, in honor of Mr. Coppersmith's sixty-fifth birthday. The evening was spent in various games and music until a late hour when all were invited to the dining room where refreshments, consisting of various kinds of cakes, candy, peanuts and lemonade were served. At a late hour all departed for their homes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Granville Coppersmith, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Yingling, Mrs. David H. Leppo, Misees Gertrude Coppersmith, Bertha Zentz, Helen Geiman, Ethel Yingling, Erma Coppersmith, Gertrude Masenhimer, Grace Yingling, Melvie Coppersmith, Ruth Yingling, Messrs. Harry Utz, Ernest R. Stocksdale, John R. Warehime, Lester Leese, Archie Zentz, Harry Leppo, Arthur Yingling, Ralph Stonesifer, Elden Leese, Sterling Leppo, Hon Warehime and Steward Zentz.

The women can't get imported bird plumage for their hats much longer, but there is nothing to prevent them from skinning kitty for their personal decoration.
