MURDER AND SUICIDE AT PLANE NO. 4, B. & O. RAILROAD

Dorsey Kelly, a farm hand employed by Mr. Samuel T. Fleming, at Plane No. 4, B. & O. Railroad, about three miles from Mt. Airy, shot and killed Mr. Fleming's 17-year-old daughter, Miss Mary Fleming, and committed suicide by shooting himself on Wednesday morning. The tragedy occurred in a meadow in the rear of Mr. Fleming's home and was not witnessed by any member of the family nor any other person. The young girl had gone to the meadow to look after a calf and was followed by Kelly. The male members of the household were absent and sometime after Mary left the house her younger sister, Etta, discovered the bodies lying together. They were both dead. Two bullets had been fired into the body of Miss Fleming in the region of the heart, killing her instantly, it is supposed. Kelly also fired two bullets into his own body one of which, it is said, struck his heart. The horrified sister of the murdered girl ran screaming to the house telling her mother the dreadful story. Mr. Fleming was sent for and soon the sad news was known to many people. To attempt to depict the agony of the bereaved parents of both the murderer and his victim would be a useless effort. Words cannot describe it.

The cause of the crime was the refusal of Mary Fleming to marry the man by whom she was ruthlessly slain. He had been paying court to her for some time, and, while she was friendly with him, when urged to marry him she told him she did not love him well enough to accept him as her husband. Her father, it is said, was willing she should do so. Kelly was sober and industrious and had been in Mr. Fleming's employ since sometime last year.

The Fleming family consists of the father, mother, three sisters, Etta, Mrs. Bessie Brady, of Plane No. 4; Mrs. Mamie Hardy, of Long Corners, and three brothers, George Fleming, of Long Corners, and Alonzo and Gaver Fleming.

Kelly also leaves a large number of brothers and sisters. Beside the elder Kelly and Mrs. Kelly, there are five sisters, Mrs. Mary Pickett, of Ellicott City; Mrs. Elva Pickett, of Poplar Springs; Mrs. Anna Hyde, of Ijamsville; Mrs. Nora Lippy, of New London; Mrs. Lillian Cookerly, of Baltimore, and three brothers, John Kelly, of Mt. Airy, Leslie and Cameron Kelly.

Mrs. Louis P. Manning, of Fair Hill, is visiting her son, Mr. Chas. Manning, of Orville, Ohio.

Have You Seen The New Model of The Perfection Oil Heating Stove

The Perfection Oil Heating Stove is positively one of the best made. And since the New Model has been put on the Market it is all that the name implies. The Standard Oil Co. has eliminated the most objectionable features of the old Stove. The two most important changes are:

FIRST: The broad low base which makes the Stove absolutely Safe and almost impossible to overturn.

SECOND: The change in the Construction of the Wick, which is so simple that a Child could put a new Wick in without the slightest difficulty. This new Wick is so arranged that it will never require setting-up as the old one did. One of the most objectionable features of the old make.

There has also been other improvements over the old Stove but the above two are most worthy of mention. It would give us great pleasure if you would come in and let us demonstrate this stove to you.
