1877 August-December Cooper Morris Incoming Letters AS 1994

SIDE TWO

and should he so to Philadelphia, will I am sure, call upon you.

If he do pay you a visit, I wish him to see the Pennsylvania Railroad, in which I have no doubt you will be able to keep him through your brother who is, I believe, one of the Directors.

I have to thank you for a kind letter received a few weeks ago; and for your sympathizing inquiries which I owed at once to have replied to.

I am happy to say we have not been in any way inconvenienced by what we hold in your Railway securities, though of course, we have suffered somewhat from the fall in price; and it is always an annoying thing to find you have recommended investments that have not answered expectation.
