C 6 4 1

1877 August-December Casper Morris Incoming Letters MS 1994

6 dec 1877

Hooktield Grove.

Epsom.

My dear Friend,

I see I have allowed a whole summer to pass by without acknowledging your kind and welcome letter recd some months ago. This is partly owing to want of health, and partly to engagements which seem to multiply as one gets older. Though I attend but little to business. In addition to other troubles I find myself obliged to economise my sight, & only use my eyes when I have the advantage of