1878 Cooper Morris Incoming Letters MS 1299

with your
to praise and thanks-
-giving to the God of love and mercy! Your dear kind letters I have read again and again. I feel grateful for all your loving kindness to me. I hope you will occasionally indulge me with a few lines, and tell me how you all
are. My dear Niece
returned here last Tuesday. She confirmed
your good report of the precious invalid.
The improvement even when she saw her was

said
marvellous! Poor dear darling! I think she may yet be spared many years to her devoted
husband and boy.
I took that I had seen
the letter. Another interesting book I have to thank you for. I have the good main:
commentary of the New Testament & Spurgeon's
thinks them very va-luable. The Memoir
I shall enjoy reading
very much. I am really very thankful
that you had started
on your innocent
