Items Of Local Interest

Mr. Andrew Hood, of this city, spent Sunday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Elizabeth Zahn and daughter, Miss Lillian, of this city, were visitors to relatives in Baltimore during the past week.

Mr. George Byers, of Chicago, Ill., is visiting his mother, Mrs. John G. Shunk, and his sister, Mrs. George E. Baughman, East Main street, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Keefer and sons Frances and Charles, of this city, motored to Littlestown, Pa., on Sunday, to visit Mrs. Keefer's mother, Mrs. Martin.

On Saturday the 5.15 P. M. train which passes through this city, going west, was delayed about 15 minutes by one of the grates of the engine becoming displaced.

Mr. David Baker, near Union Bridge, is the owner of a cow that has triplet calves. The cow was recently purchased from the Whitehill Brothers, and the Pilot says was driven from the town with the calves when they were only a few days old. Triplets among cattle are of rare occurrence and the little bovines attract much attention.

The hay and straw ruined by the fire at the hay and straw packing house of the N. I. Gorsuch Son Co., this city, have been hauled away and the debris of the burnt building removed. No time will be lost in beginning the erection of a new and improvid structure to be sheathed with steel. The company expects to have the building ready for business in two weeks.

Rev. John H. Gonso, pastor of the Carrollton circuit, Church of God, began revival services in Carroll Hall, this city, on Sunday evening. The services were not contemphated, but so much interest was manifested at the regular Sunday evening meeting, that it was resolved to continue it from night to night. A number of inquirers or penitents and several conversions are reported.

Mr. George Jones, formerly of this city, but now of Providence, Rhode Island, visited his mother, Mrs. H. C. Jones, of East Green street, last week. On Saturday he went to Baltimore to see his brother, J. Fisher Jones, and Monday he visited friends in Washington. Mr. Jones left the latter city on Tuesday for his home in Providence, where he is employed by the torpedo factory formerly located in this city.

Young men of this city have organized the Social Progressive Club, with the following officers: J. P. Bixler, president; L. Billingslea, vice president; J. Stewart, secretary; D. Bankard, assistant secretary; P. N. Samios, treasurer. The club, it is stated, has secured rooms in the Times building, which will be fitted up with mission furniture and supplied with readng matter and a pool table for the use of the members.

The fire which destroyed the hay and straw packing house of the N. I. Gorsuch Son Company and its contents, last week, had scarcely been entirely extinguished, when Mr. Jno. J. Reese, treasurer of the Baltimore Fire Insurance Company, paid the $1,000 insurance against that company. The fire was discovered Tuesday evening, 3rd inst., and continued to burn a couple of days, and the policy was paid Saturday, 7th inst., making a record for prompt settlement.

The Baltimore Sunday Sun of the 8th inst. had an interesting article about the great fire in Baltimore in 1904, in which a list of the out-of-town fire companies which assisted in fighting the terrible conflagration was given, omitting the Westminster Fire Engine and Hose Company No 1. The omission, no doubt, was accidental, but if the Sun will look up the facts it will be reminded that this volunteer company had a prominent part in arresting the progress of the flames. It took a gallant stand at the Kernan building at the East side of the Baltimore street bridge and suppressed the blaze that was fast threatening the destruction of the structure, though in doing so some of the firemen were exposed to considerable danger. It also suppressed a blaze in a lumber yard at the Lombard street bridge and saved a building or two from destruction, thus stopping the fire from spreading over East Baltimore. It was common talk in Baltimore, at the time, that this country volunteer company had much to do with saving the eastern section of the city from the ravages of the fire.

An earthquake of considerable violence occurred in New York, New England and Northern Pennsylvania about 1.30 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon. Its effect was felt, but very slightly, as far South as Washington. Onondaga county, N. Y., seems to have been shaken more violently than any other section. Buildings oscillated a couple of feet from the perpendicular, and much alarm was felt. In one of the schools of Syracuse plastering fell from the ceiling and the pupils were dismissed under the apprehension that the building might collapse. At Binghampton, N. Y., a man was killed by the caving in of a trench in which he was at work. The "shock" extended into Canada, where it was quite violent, but the damage was nowhere great. Perceptibly it lasted about 20 seconds, but the tremors continued to be recorded on the seismograph for 2 1|4 minutes.

Mrs. A. Pierce Marsh, of Frederick, was a visitor to this city on Monday.

Miss Mary Miller, of this city, visited friends in Baltimore from Sunday until Wednesday.

Miss Ethel Keefer, of Mayberry, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Stonesifer, of East Main street, this city.

Mr. Clarence Miller, of this city, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller, of Millers.

A thief or thieves broke into the meat house of Mr. David E. Stem, at Sams Creek, on Sunday night and stole seven hams and a shoulder of bacon.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, were entertained Tuesday night at Social Hall by Mesdames Trayer, Sheets, Bish and Miss Ethel Steele. After the literary program was rendered refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Laura Scholl brought suit on Monday, in the Circuit Court for Frederick county, against A. Kemp Keefer and Jacob Rohrback, executors of the estate of the late Mrs. Margaret E. S. Hood, for $6,000 for services rendered. The bill claims that the plaintiff was the companion and attendant of Mrs. Hood for many years and that she was not paid for her services. Mrs. Hood left an estate of nearly $300,000 to be divided among churches and benevolent institutions and relatives and friends.

Rev. O. C. Marriott, a venerable retired clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church, met with a serious accident at his home on East Green street, this city, on Sunday morning. In descending his cellar steps and when near the bottom one he slipped and fell, breaking his right leg at or near the hip. The injury, even to a young person, would be a severe one, but in consequence of Mr. Marriott's advanced age it is very serious. He has the sincere sympathy of all who know him and understand the serious nature of the fracture.

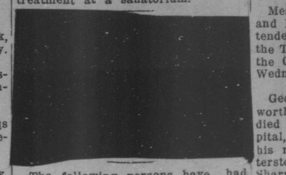

The Westminster Outing Club was organized with thirty members, at a meeting held on Monday night. Messrs. H. D. Fowble, E. O. Diffendal and W. F. Thomas were elected officers of the club, with Messrs. Andrew D. Reese, J. L. Reifsnider, Jr., Frank T. Shaeffer, Edw. Leister, F. B. Bankard, Frank E. Shaeffer, E. O. Babylon as the executive committee. B. Bankert, Frank Shaeffer, E. O. Diffendal and Joseph A. Stoner were appointed a committee of arrangements. The purpose of the club is to take an annual outing, and its intention is to go into camp somewhere below Baltimore sometime next summer. The location will be determined at the next meeting, to be held March 9th.

The strange scene of a horse attached to a buggy and without a driver, running from the vicinity of the Firemen's building down Main street towards the railroad in this city, with a couple of well known citizens acting as brakes at the rear of the vehicle, was witnessed on Tuesday morning. The animal, frightened by an automobile, in plunging aside had fallen, struggled to its feet and started to run, when the gentlemen rushed up, took hold of the rear axle of the buggy and by sheer backward force kept the runaway down to a moderate gallop and finally brought the rig to a standstill just west of the railroad. The feet of the men were actually sliding at times on the smooth street. It was a gallant and commendable act.

Mr. Michael S. Brilhart celebrated the 79th anniversary of his birth Saturday, February 7, 1914, at his home in Hampstead. A sumptuous dinner was prepared by Mrs. Brilhart and her daughter, Mrs. Janetta Bixler. Mr. Brilhart is enjoying his usual health with the exception of his sight. He suffered a severe illness the past fall and since that time he has been entirely blind in one eye and the other eye has been affected very badly. A shower of cards was received by Mr. Brilhart from his many friends in different parts of the county and Pennsylvania, embracing the following places: Middleburg, Frizellburg, Taneytown, Union Mills, Wakefield, New Windsor, Manchester, Greenmount, Hampstead, Bachman's Valley, Westminster and York, Pa. Mr. Brilhart wishes to thank his friends for their kind remembrance.

As only six weeks remain of the term of Mr. H. P. Gorsuch, as postmaster of Westminster, there is natural speculation as to his probable successor. Of course he is a Democrat, though if the principles of civil service were applied in the case Mr. Gorsuch would succeed himself, as Westminster has never had a more acceptable nor better postmaster, politics not being considered. There are four pronounced applicants for the position—Mr. Joseph B. Boyle, Dr. Thomas J. Coonan, Mr. George E. Matthews and Dr. Thomas K. Shaw. The names are given alphabetically and not by preference. It is said that other well known citizens are thought of as possible applicants, in case of a deadlock on the four names mentioned. As all are men of character and standing it is understood that the Republicans will take no part in recommending either of them. Individual Republicans probably have their personal and different preferences, but it belongs to the Democrats solely to decide upon the applicant whom they desire to receive the appointment.

Messrs. Silas D. Senseney and Rev. H. Schwarzkopf, of Union Bridge, have gone to Battle Creek, Mich., for treatment at a sanatorium.

The following persons have had the Chesapeake and Potomac telephone installed in their residences: Messrs. Clarence Hahn, Westminster, Westminster 8r; Gratton Doyle, Westminster, Westminster 32k; Vernon J. Dudrer, Union Bridge, Union Bridge, Tw; J. N. Fogle Union Bridge 43f; John H. Sauble, near Taneytown, Taneytown 12-15; D. O. Shoemaker, Taneytown, Taneytown 16w, and D. H. Essig, near Taneytown, Taneytown 36-6.

In the House of Delegates, on Wednesday Mr. Sayers presented a petition from citizens of this county, praying that the liquor laws governing the county be made uniform. How that is to be done the brief report of the presentation of the petition does not state. Mr. Sayers also introduced a bill to direct the State Roads Commission to pay David E. Walsh, Esq., mayor of this city, the sum of $7,527.19 for road work. The petition was referred to the Temperance Committee and the bill to the Ways and Means Committee.

The Plaza Bowling Team of Westminster for the second time this season, headed by its Captain, H. C. Albaugh, defeated the well known Kaiser team of Baltimore City, on their own alleys, on last Wednesday night. The Plaza team took two straight games out of three, winning both easily by good margins. Despite the fact that the Westminster boys had never bowled on the Kaiser alleys, they took the lead from the start and kept it. In the near future the Plaza team will give them a return game on the Plaza alleys. Van and Albaugh rolled high score for Westminster, while Waxter and Julius excelled for Baltimore.

A remarkable religious revival closed at Waynesboro, Pa., on Monday night. It was conducted by an evangelist from Ohio, of whose name the Sentinel is not certain, and therefore omits it. A tabernacle, with a capacity of between 5,000 and 6,000 people was erected for the services and the attendance was so large that it was sometimes crowded, the meetings having continued for five weeks. Three thousand conversions are reported as the result of the labors of the leading evangelist and the several assistants who accompanied him. The only compensation asked was the amount necessary to cover expenses, but some Waynesboro citizens contrived to have a collection taken up for the benefit of the evangelist and the contributions amounted to over $2,000.

The hearing on the State-wide Woman Suffrage bill was held in the Hall of the House of Delegates at Annapolis, on Tuesday, at 3 P. M. About 1000 suffragists from all parts of the State were present at the hearing. Mr. Charles V. McNabb, of Harford county, who introduced the bill in the House, presided at the hearing. Prominent speakers were present and pleaded with the delegates for the passage of the amendment. Among the speakers were:—Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association; Dr. Thaddeus P. Thomas, Mrs. Wm. M. Ellicott, Miss Janet Richards, Rev. J. G. Mythen, Mr. Frank F. Ramey, Mrs. S. Johnson Poe and Miss Elizabeth G. Taylor. After the speakers had finished their addresses, they were transferred to the State House steps where overflow meetings were held. Here hundreds of people gathered and listened to the arguments advanced.

As announced last week, Mr. S. Lawrence Eddy, Scout Commissioner for the State of Maryland, Boy Scouts of America, will visit Westminster on Friday, February 20th, and will be glad to meet as many of the parents of the boys as well as all the business men, who are interested in the welfare of the boys of the town, at the Westminster High School at half past two o'clock in the afternoon. The boys will be there and many of them are anxious to join the Scouts, and they ask you to help them. Now is the chance to do something for our boys, and it is hoped that Mr. Eddy will have a good audience of Westminster citizens to greet him. Pastors are especially requested to call the attention of their congregations and Sunday schools to the meeting and urge them to attend. Give that much time to the boys, and we feel confident that Mr. Eddy will fill us with enthusiasm and a splendid troop of Boy Scouts will be organized Friday, February 20th, 2.30 P. M., Westminster High School.

Mrs. Frank Myers, chairman of the "Fly Committee," wishes to inform the boys and girls who desire to take part in the contest that she has fifty fly traps she will give to them for the asking. Flies will be received at the Times lobby every Saturday from 2.30 to 4 P. M., beginning March 7. During the month of March we will pay fifteen cents a pint for flies. After April 1, ten cents a pint. There will be no weekly prizes but two season prizes for boys and two for girls. Don't forget the Exchange at the Times lobby from 2.30 to 4 P. M. every Saturday.

Committee reporter,
MRS. J. D. BELT.

Mrs. J. H. Ryland and daughter visited Mrs. Ryland's mother, Mrs. William Bond, at Reese, this week.

Messrs. A. C. Allgire, F. B. Dillard and Paul Whitmore, of this city, attended the banquet that was held by the Telephone Society of Baltimore at the Odd Fellows' Temple, Baltimore, Wednesday night.

George Waller, a venerable and worthy colored resident of this city, died at the Maryland General Hospital, in Baltimore, on Monday, and his remains were interred at Reisterstown on Wednesday. Mr. F. C. Sharrer had charge of the burial.

Members of the "Daughters of the King," a Sunday School class of the Methodist Protestant Church, this city, held their monthly business meeting Tuesday evening, February 10, 1914, at the home of Mrs. D. L. Farrar, East Green street, this city. The meeting was opened with scripture reading and prayer. Several beautiful hymns were sung and a piano solo was delightfully rendered by Miss Ethel Keefer. A suggestion was made to hold group prayer meetings at several of the different homes in the interest of the revival services to be held in March. Miss Minnie Shauck was initiated into the class. Excellent refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held in April.

The Just Government League of Carroll County will hold its regular monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. S. Luther Bare, W. Main St., on Tuesday, February 17, at 7.30 P. M. Every member is requested to be present. The hearing on the Woman Suffrage Amendment before the House and Senate Committees on Constitutional Amendments was held in the Hall of the House of Delegates, Annapolis, on Tuesday, February 10, at 3 P. M. The Carroll County League was well represented by three of its active members, Mrs. S. K. Herr, vice president; Miss A. A. Whitmore, secretary, and Mrs. O. D. Gilbert, of Westminster. They were all pleased with the reception given them by the members of the Legislature and the attention that was given the speeches, and spoke especially of the kindness and courtesy of our own Carroll County Delegates.

From Gamber correspondent.

A SURPRISE DANCE

There was quite a surprise given to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnes and family on Tuesday night. Games and dancing were indulged in until about eleven o'clock when all were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served. At a late hour all departed for their homes. Brothers and Harry Shipley, Misses Mae Brothers, Lydia Ward, Margie Barnes, Mary Brothers, Lollie Barnes, Treva Ward, Nellie Bowers, Eva Ford, Lydia Gamber, Bessie Gamber, Addie Gosnell, Lillian Barnes, Pearl Brothers, and Julia Barnes, Messrs. A PLEASANT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The editor of the Sentinel has received from Mrs. Theodore Hoffman, a very gracious letter, acknowledging the pleasure she has experienced in reading some of the brief sketches of some of those whom she knew in the past. She adds some things that give increased interest to one or two of the sketches. She says:

"I wish to acknowledge that your memorials are very interesting to me. That I remember very many whom you recall. In last week's Sentinel (January 30), you brought to my mind dear old Dr. John Swope and his brother, Dr. Samuel Swope, both of whom were my father's physician nearly 70 years ago. His physicians nearly 70 years ago, his wife contracted not to interfere with each other's church rights, and he took her to the door of her church, the Catholic, and then went to his, the Lutheran. He became very deaf in his old age, but was prepared with slate and pencil for those who met him to write what they might desire to say to him.

You also brought to my mind Mr. Fred. White, my school teacher when I was very young. His father, John White, and my father, John Snook, almost or quite, joined farms, near Bruceville."

The letter is written in a clear, plain hand and, as the reader can see, very intelligently expresses Mrs. Hoffman's thoughts on the subject to which it refers. She says it is intended for the editor's encouragement and not for publication. At his request, however, she has given her consent to its appearance in the Sentinel's columns.

Junior Order Banquet

The annual banquet of Western Maryland Council No. 79, Junior Order United American Mechanics, on Wednesday night, was a great occasion for its members, their families and friends. The whole of the Odd Fellows' Hall building was theirs for the night. In the lodge room on the third floor, the members of the order and their guests began to gather soon after seven o'clock and by eight o'clock more than three hundred were present. Just before going to the banquet room in the armory, on the second floor, Eli T. Butler gave an interesting resume of the past year's work of the council and in well chosen words welcomed everybody to the good things prepared for the evening's entertainment. He gave a detailed statement of the financial condition of the council, which was more than gratifying to all. The order is growing in this city, both numerically and in personnel. There are now on the roll in good standing 166 members, with 12 applicants elected and waiting initiation.

After Mr. Butler's address, marshaled by John E Stem, chairman of the supper committee, one hundred and sixty persons went to the armory, where they remained standing around four tables stretching the whole length of the room, until prayer was offered by Rev. W. L. Seabrook, who is a member of the council. The supper committee, composed of John E. Stem, chairman, John Coppersmith, Jackson Myerly, Louis Horst, Charles Turfle and D. C. Yingling, received many flattering congratulations on its work and the corps of waiters served the tables with the skill and promptness of professionals. The menu comprised turkey, ham, sweitzer cheese, potato chips, celery, pickles, finger rolls, Maryland biscuit, ice ceram, cake and coffee. The tables were surrounded a second time, and prayer was offered by Rev. W. H. Hetrick. While the second company was enjoying the banquet, the first went to the Opera House on the first floor, where they enjoyed some of the finest p[illegible] that have been shown in West[illegible]ster. At about 10.30 the second company came down, and under the leadership of Mr. Stem, the Junior Order Minstels gave one of their jolly entertainments. The circle was composed of Charles E. Brown, banjo, middle man; John E. Stem, tambourine, and Ulysses Brown, bones, end men; James Clary and Sam. Miller, bones; Joe Weimert, violin; Charles Essom, guitar, and Walter Weimert, banjo. John Stem's solo, with choruses by the minstrels, with the humorous dialogue interspersed, kept the crowd in a constant good humor. "Hunk" Brown was never better in his specialties, as black faced dancer and Irish clog dancer and as the old rheumatic darkey "Goin' Back to Alabama," was recalled again and again. Roy Weimert gave a numorous recitation and his clog dancing was fine. Several sketches were rendered by the company, and the entertainment closed with the Court scene, that never seems to grow old. Charlie Brown, as Judge; Robert Lowe as State's Attorney; Harry Wellar, as counsel for prisoners; Ulysses Brown as policeman; Robert Brown, the boy prisoner, who was accused of steling bread; Roy Wimert, the woman prisoner, and James Clary, with the fits cure, all contributed to the evening's fun.

Ladies and other citizens of New Windsor have shown their sympathy for the suffering Mexican refugees at El Paso, Texas, in a very practical manner. Reading in the Baltimore American, a description, written by Mrs. Charles R. Miller, of Baltimore, of the pitable plight and extreme destitution of these unfortunate people, many of whom are women and little children, they determined to do a little something for their relief, and the result was the collection of a lot of clothing, valued at $120, which was shipped to El Paso, by express,a day of two ago. This action does credit to the contributors to this effort to send some relief to the sufferers. It is well worthy of imitation by citizens of other places.

The Sentinel has received a copy of the preliminary report, to Governor Goldsborough, of the Maryland Country Life Commission, which contains much interesting statistical and other matter in relation to farms and schools, with important suggestions for the advantage of country life. Mr. Edward E. Reindollar, of Taneytown, is a member of the commission.

Mr. Sherwood Cox, the Western Maryland operator who was reported sick last week, is very much improved and expects to resume his work next week.
