journey before the
most calamitous which I have just received in England. It would have saddened all your hearts. Under such visitations we can only say "Be still and know that I am God." I cannot dwell
upon these sad events.
May they be sanctified
to us all! The remarkable day we are now living in - I pate very kindly for watchfulness & prayer! Dear friends
I love & think over

the pleasant hours
we spent together - &
the quiet worship we had at the little meeting house. Should I live
be spared and I go again to Malvern. I shall feel the void painfully. I love & think how you and the dear Mother would be welcomed home, and I hope &
hear that you have felt the utmost benefit by the change - and that you the winter comfortably. Our autumn fires have set in
and it is becoming cold.
