To Enjoy The Popular Dances

The feet must be free from pain. Many women and men realize the comfort to be enjoyed by using Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes before the dance. Since dancing has become so popular, Allen's Foot-Ease is in demand everywhere because it rests the feet and makes dancing a delight. For Free sample, Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

MANCHESTER

Last week was the month's social week for our town. The Aid Society spent a pleasant evening on Monday and on Tuesday evening the Rebekahs had a pleasant meeting. The Zepp Bros. gave a dance in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Wednesday evening that was largely attended. By invitation the members of the sewing circle were at the home of Mrs. H. T. J. Lamotte on Thursday evening when the hostess had the pleasure of welcoming to her home that evening one of her girl friends whom she had not seen for twenty-five years, Mrs. D. Elmer Mastu, of Huntingdon, Pa., who arrived by the evening train and was welcomed with open arms and made to feel at home. At 7.30 as the members of the circle arrived the guests were introduced and her affable manner soon made her a friend to all and she was happy to meet so many of the hostess' friends who enjoyed a pleasant evening amid the products of their work bags. When the invitation to refreshments was given the hostess proved to be a full fledged progressive.

They found tables with places for three, four or five. Each represented a different course. When No. 1 finished they moved to No. 2. Number 2 to number three and so on until all had completed the circuit and had been served with all the courses said to be along progressive lines for serving and created lots of fun and enjoyment.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Chas. J. Everhart had Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, May E. Gettier, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Howard Hawk, Mrs. C. Miller, Mrs. Chas. M. Masenhimer, Mrs. Wm. H. Shower, Mrs. H. T. J. Lamotte, and Miss Fannie G. Ross to supper that was an enjoyable affair. The table appointments and menu were Al.

Following the above Miss Fannie G. Ross had a large company to a social at her home on Friday evening in honor of the visiting ladies. As usual the hostess had her home in readiness for her guests to have a nice time which each realized before the good nights were said, and at a late hour when the invitation to refreshments was given there was nothing found wanting to please the most fastidious.

And still another is recorded to complete the series of the week given by Mrs. Walter D. Hanson at her home on North Main street who had quite a company of friends to a social on Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Mastu and Mrs. Hawk, who enjoyed the evening very pleasantly as it brought about many reminiscenses of by-gone days that proved to be pleasant factors in the evening's enjoyment. The hostess at a late hour extended an invitation to refreshments that were fine and much enjoyed. When the retiring hour came the honored ladies expressed their gratitude to the hostess for her kindness and evening's enjoyment.

Mr. Howard Hoffman held a dance in the I. O. O. F. Hall on the evening of the 11th that was largely attended.

Rev. and Mrs. S. M. Roeder sent announcements to a number of friends here of the marriage of their daughter Anna G., to Mr. Thomas Burns Bullock, of N. C., on Thursday, 19th inst., at the home of the bride in Glen Rock, Pa. They carry with them to their southern home our best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Mrs. Chas. M. Masenhimer continued the social series on Monday evening, the 24th inst., by having a company of friends at her home to a fine social affair. Mrs. M. extended her hospitality at a late hour by serving fine refreshments.

Mrs. Cornelius Miller could not think of being left in the background but came into the social series on Tuesday evening by having a number of friends at her home on South Main street to a social that was O. K. in every respect and enjoyed by all in the games and amusements incident to these occasions. Though last yet not least was the refreshment period that proved to be an enjoyable factor in the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burgoon on North Main street gave a fast nacht party on Tuesday evening at which all the Burgoons in easy distance had invitations and were present besides other friends who enjoyed a very pleasant evening among amusements and social features. The host and hostess were at their best and extended a hearty welcome to all. At a late hour they demonstrated their hospitality by having all enjoy abundant refreshments among which were the toothsome fast nachts that were Al. Time sped and the midnight hour was fast coming in sight ere the reluctant good nights were said leaving their best wishes with the host and hostess that they may enjoy many more fast nacht anniversaries.

Last week the stork in its flight stopped long enough at the home of Mr. Howard Loats to leave a fine girl baby.

The storm in its onward course on the 23rd gave this section an all day into the night snow fall, so that by morning our people had a foot or more of snow to shovel and our streets presented ideal winter scenes with the snow piled 4 and 5 feet high at many places and the thermometer registering zero at some locations in town; at most places 2 and 3 above which promises fine sleighing when the roads are leveled.

Miss Laura Myers organized a penny social club on the evening of the 20th inst., with the scholars of her Sunday School class. The meeting was opened with singing America. Miss Myers and Mildred Hanson gave a piano duet. Solo, Ruth Houck; reading, Mary Miller; singing, Red White and Blue; election of officers next in order. Lillian Schmidt was elected collector and Ethel Menchey treasurer. This was followed by social games and the serving of refreshments.

On Tuesday evening after the regular routine of business in Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18 was gone thorugh with and the lodge regularly closed the ladies served fast nachts and coffee in abundance which were enjoyed during a social period that followed.

Mrs. John E. Leese is at the U. P. L. Hospital, Baltimore, and is being treated for her arm that was hurt by a fall several months ago and which has caused her much suffering since.

Miss Sadie E. Masenhimer spent Monday with friends in Baltimore.

Our legislative members spent their week end here at their homes.

Mercury found its way to zero on Wednesday morning here. At only exposed places it was below.

SWEET AIR

Mr. Granville Bloom is spending some time with his granddaughter, Mrs. Donald Miller.

We were very sorry to learn last week of the death of Miss Caroline Penn. She was an estimable lady and lived to an old age. She was beloved by all who came in contact with her and was a devoted christian lady for 54 years of her life. She died at the home of her nephew, Mr. Calvin Pickett, with whom she had resided for about 14 years.

Mr. Walter Condon moved his sawmill to the farm of Mr. Donald Miller several days ago, to saw a barn frame, but owing to the severity of the weather he has been unable to do the work.

Mr. Elmer Hood, who built a fine barn on his farm near here, has made quite an improvement by removing the old log barn and frame stable which have been used for many years.

Many of the roads are yet impassable by snow drifts which in some places are several feet high.

Mr. Elmer Hood was in Mt. Airy one day last week.

Master Burton Hood who has been suffering with bronchitis for several weeks is somewhat improved.

Mr. Elmer Hood, daughter Sophronia, and sons Chester and Albin, of Woodbine, and Mr. Sylvester Hood, of Mt. Airy, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Brashears, of West Falls.

Messrs. James Miller, of Baltimore, and Charles Welsh, of Sykesville, called on relatives at Woodbine last Sunday.

We are glad to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore have moved to the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glennan.

This was Mrs. Moore's former home and we welcome them back among us.

Preaching Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock and Christian Endeavor at 7.30.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Rev. J. W. Reinecke addressed Camp No. 7, P. O. S. of A., on Sunday afternoon, 22nd inst. The audience was not as large as expected. Rev. Martin Schweitzer, of Union Bridge, was also present but declined at first to speak until Rev. Reinecke explained to him that he was the oldest and that the youngest should obey the older and Rev. Schweitzer then gave a short talk.

Messrs. Norval and Raymond Hahn, of Baltimore, spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahn.

Mr. Wm. B. Yingling and Miss Mildred Devilbiss spent a few days with relatives and friends in Westminster.

Mrs. Henry Wantz and granddaughter, Ruthetta Wantz, Mr. J. Roy Myers and family spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Zepp.

BACHMAN'S VALLEY

We are having plenty of snow which caused the roads to drift and will have to be opened up.

The inclement weather of last Tuesday kept some of the citizens from going to Annapolis, in the interest of dispensing with the use of liquor in Carroll county.

There seems to be lots of whooping cough just now. A young daughter of Mr. Otto Harman is sick with pneumonia, but is getting better under the care of Dr. J. S. Zeigler.

Mrs. James Martin met with what might have been a serious accident at her home while tieing cows in the stable. The cows began fighting and Mrs. Martin in her effort to get out of the stable, was caught against a partition and injured badly. Dr. Zeigler rendered medical attention.

Mr. David Jones had the misfortune to fall on the ice near his home and broke a small bone in one of his limbs at the ankle. Dr. J. S. Zeigler adjusted the fracture.

Mr. Oscar Frock, who expected to go to the far West in the near future, has contracted a heavy cold and is confined to the house. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Maurice Resh, who was sick at his home for a few days, is able to be out again.

Mr. Henry Sell, a well known resident, had an upset while sleighing. One of the sleigh shafts was broken but no other serious damage was done.

Upsetting of sleighs seemed to be quite numerous on the Bachman's Valley road last Saturday evening, but no serious damage resulted therefrom.

Our young men, Leonard and John, seemed to be highly pleased last Friday evening. The trip was most pleasant and enjoyable.

The young men are discussing ball playing in all of its branches and expect to put up some games that will far excel anything of the past.

Mr. Chas. Barnhart, who resides close to Carroll County Reed Band Hall, lost his barn and shed by fire last Sunday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock. Nobody being at home when the fire started it is of a mysterious nature. Two horses were burned, a wagon, mower &c. There was some insurance.

Mr. G. M. Resh and wife were on a visit to Mrs. Thomas Diven, of Stiltz, Pa. Mrs. Diven is sick at the present time.

Miss Helen Schaeffer, who is attending college, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Schaeffer.

Mrs. James Hann is confined to the house by sickness. Dr. J. H. Sherman is the attending physician.

Mr. Harry Noble, the experienced horseman and mule rider, while out sleighing on Wednesday morning had an upset but no damage was done.

MILLERS

Some of our people attended the sales of Fremont Redding, near Greenmount and Mrs. Leah Barber, of this place, last Saturday.

Master Forrest Berwager, near here, was taken ill last week and was unable to use his body from his waist down. We hope he will soon recover and no serious results follow. Dr. J. H. Preston is attending him.

The snow storm of Monday and Monday night blocked the Manchester road nearly all the way from this place to Manchester. A number of men with their shovels worked Tuesday afternoon and opened the road.

Harry Brilhart and wife spent Sunday visiting the former's parents at Manchester.

Mrs. John P. Frank is again able to be about the house, after an illness of several months.

Our assistant teacher, Miss Laura Burns, was unable to attend to her duties last week on account of being ill, threatened with pneumonia.

It will, no doubt, be news to the many friends of Miss Ovie Miller, (who formerly resided her), but now of Westminster, to learn of her marriage to Mr. Clyde Ecker of near Westminster, which took place last Wednesday, February 18th, at Westminster.

Our people are enjoying the fine sleighing just now.

Edward Bollinger visited Baltimore friends over Sunday.

GIST

Winter is with us again in full force. The first of last week the roads were drifted to such an extent that traveling was impossible, except by going through the fields until several men shoveled the roads open. Our rural mail carrier, No. 7, from Westminster, was unable to get to our village for a few days. Sykesville carrier No. 2 never missed a day, which was very remarkable, considering the bad condition of the roads. With the snow we had Monday sleighing is fine at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stouffer and family, of Franklintown, is visiting Mrs. Stouffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snider.

We extend our congratulations to Miss Blanche Smith, of this place, and Mr. Cleveland Reaver, of Woodbine, who were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, February 18, wishing them a long happy and prosperous married life.

Quite a number of our folks are on the sick list with colds and grippe.

Mr. Walter E. Allen purchased a pair of fine black horses in Baltimore last week.

Mr. John Spencer and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Sunday.
