that others should share the responsibility, it seems to me that a Committee of the surviving Original members of the Board (like himself) - Dr Morton, Dr Newton and myself - would satisfy the Committee as well as the Board -

I am next in seniority, and in that position as well as acting Chairman of the Committee, I will be glad to adopt any leads and arrangements that may be determined on - without further consultation - and without delay.

Very truly

My dear Doctor

I am very glad to learn by your note of to day that you have the same desire that I have in regard to leads on the wood walls, and the proper places for the engravings as well as to the selection of the leads by the Bishop -

I spoke about it to Dr Knight yesterday and would have spoken again to Mr. Pallister if he had been there - Dr Knight agreed not to mention the matter to any one at the Hospital (including the Chaplain) as he considered the Bishop to be the proper authority to consult and
