MILLERS

Daniel Bender, of Jersey City, visited his mother and sister here Sunday.

Mrs. Henry M. Miller spent a day recently at Baltimore.

Mrs. George Kerchner entertained friends from Columbia, Pa., and Woodensburg, Md., last Sunday.

Messrs. Clinton Rohrbaugh and Earl Hann expect to leave this week for Schaller, Iowa, where they will be employed by William Dandy on his farm.

Miss Fern Miller his improved after being ill with tonsilitis.

A jolly quilting party was given by Mrs. Henry K. Miller at her home last Thursday and a very pleasant day was spent. There were three quilts in the frames and the women got busy and finished two and the third on a good way. The dinner was prepared and served by Amanda Lessner, who is an excellent cook. Everybody enjoyed the dinner immensely. About three o'clock cakes and cider were served. Those present were: Mesdames Henry K. Miller, Amanda Lessner, Theodore Miller, Belle Bortner, George Kerchner, George Bollinger, John K. Miller, George Hoover, Lloyd Miller, Luther Wentz, John Rinehart, Charles Martin, Everett Miller, Henry M. Miller, John Graf, William Hosfelt, Leah Barber, Jacob Zepp, Harry Brilhart, Joseph Frank and John Null.

Joseph Hoffnagle, of Baltimore, visited his mother here Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. John Null is ill with tonsilitis.

Irvin Wyand moved his family into his house near Lineboro last Thursday. We were sorry to lose them as residents in our village..

Jacob Zepp is on the sick list.

WAKEFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little attended the sale of Mr. Wright at Bark Hill on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz spent Wednesday and Thursday with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Catzendafner, near Union Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dickensheets and daughter Julia spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little were given a reception at the groom's home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Fannie Buckey spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Jasper Englar.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little attended a dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Kauffman Sunday.

Mr. Jasper Englar is on the sick list.

Mr. Charles Winter, of near here, has accepted a position in Mr. Edwin Engel's store at Union Bridge. Mrs. Winter and children are spending some time with her parents in this place.

Rev. Nunemaker, of Altoona, Pa., preached a very interesting sermon in the Bethel at this place Sunday afternoon, but on account of the inclement weather the congregation was small.

Aaron Woodyard, a respected colored man of this place, has been very sick.

Christian Endeavor Sunday evening at 7.30.

TAYLORSVILLE

Blow March, blow! We certainly are face to face with Mr. March. He came in with the roar, perhaps he will go out lamblike. Peaceful

Mr. Halbert Poole, of Taneytown, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Price.

The Ladies' Aid held its February meeting Thursday afternoon, at the Church. Their next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Zepp, of Day. They will hold an oyster supper Saturday evening, March 14th, at the hall here.

We have a lady in our town who can see the wind. She causes some commotion by her saying, See the wind! Can any one beat it?

Mr. John Franklin, another one of our young men has secured a position at the State Hospital, and entered upon his duties Thursday. We wish him success in his new vocation.

Mr. Lloyd Pickett will leave in the near future for Illinois. May he attain success by so doing.

Some of our people attended the sale of N. S. Wood Saturday. He realized good prices for things sold. F. A. Crawford, auctioneer.

SILVER RUN

Mr. Howard Bowman, of Silver Run, gave a number of his friends a fine ride on a large sled drawn by four horses Thursday evening, February 24, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kindig near Littlestown, Pa., where they received a hearty welcome and were royally entertained. Refreshments were served in abundance, after which the happy party expressed their appreciation for the evening's enjoyment. Those present were: Misses Gertrude Keefauver, Elsie Smith, Esther Hartman, Anna Hartman, Alice Yingling, Catharine Feeser, Lillie Mous, Alice Lippy, Edna Morelock, Carrie Dutterer, Mabel Albert, Margaret Ecker, Mary Bankert, and Mary Frock, Messrs. George Geiselman, Chester Leese, Robert Mathias, Howard Bowman, Harry Feeser, Amidee Ecker, Walter Warehime and Roy Kindig.

The scholars from Silver Run school with their teachers visited Frock's and Pleasant Valley schools last Friday afternoon. The trip was made on a large four-horse sled driven by Mr. Alvin Dutterer. They were heartily welcomed by both schools and the scholars enjoyed their trip very much and expressed many thanks to Mr. Dutterer and Mr. Geo. Bowman for the use of their horses and sled.

The burning of a chimney on Mr. Charles Baughman's house caused quite an excitement for a short time last Sunday evening. With the help of neighbors and a chemical fire extinguisher the fire was soon under control.

Despite the inclement weather the Foreign Mission services held in the Reformed church last Sunday were well attended. Miss Gertrude Logan, field secretary, delivered very interesting addresses at the morning and evening services.

Rev. S. C. Hoover, who had been ill for several days is slowly improving.

Miss Margaret Hull returned to her home after a visit of two weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Hull.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Hogman and Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Hoover attended the Masonic banquet at Littlestown last Thursday evening

Grace Hull and Caroline Yingling are confined to their homes with chickenpox.

Prof. Oliver Morelock, county superintendent of Essex county, Maplewood, N. J., spent a few days with his brother H. S. Morelock. Prof. Morelock also attended the National teachers' association at Richmond, Va. Miss Edna Morelock accompanied her uncle, Prof. Morelock, to his home at Maplewood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burgoon, of Union Mills, and Mrs. Wm. J. Zacharias, spent Friday with Mrs. Hamilton Forrest, of Littlestown, Pa.

Monday was the most disagreeable day this winter. Miss Mabel Albert, Miss Mary Copenhaver and Mr. Wellington Penn, did not reach their schools until Tuesday.

UNIONTOWN

Services at the Church of God on Sunday will be, preaching at 10.15 A. M. A sermon to the I. O. M., at 2 P. M. and regular preaching 7 P. M. The revival services the past week have been well attended and a number of conversions reported. Last Sunday Rev. Nonemaker preached to the order of Red Men in the morning.

There will be communion services at the M. P. Church on Sunday morning.

It is with sincere regret we notice that Rev. G. W. Baughman handed in his resignation to the joint council on Wednesday as pastor of the Uniontown Lutheran charge which comprises the churches at Winters', Mt. Union, Baust and Uniontown. On account of continued ill health he was compelled to give up the work. He as been a faithful pastor of the charge for twenty years and his friends in and out of the church are sorry to hear of his decision and hope he may be benefitted by a rest and able to take up his work again. He will hold no further services in the charge.

Last Friday the members and friends of the Lutheran Church gathered at the parsonage and spent a social afternoon. Refreshments, consisting of ham sandwiches, cake and coffee were enjoyed. Those present came loaded with substantials for the use of the family.

While driving in a sleigh to Pleasant Valley last week, Theodore Cummings was unfortunate in having his horse get sick and though Dr. J. Englar was on hand nothing could be done, and the horse, which was a young one, died. 'Tis a big loss to Mr. Cummings, who is preparing to go to farming this spring.

George Carbaugh, who was in the hospital in Baltimore for a month, returned home last week, and is getting along nicely.

Miss Sadie Clingan, who spent several months in Washington, returned home last week. Her father's condition remains unimproved.

Glenn Brown, of Fawn Grove, is spending some time with his grandfather, Rev. I. H. Wright.

Mrs. Clara Crabbs and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Hagerstown, visited Miss Annie E. Baust over Sunday.

Joseph Slonaker and wife, of Baltimore, were week end guests of Samuel Harbaugh and wife.

Mrs. Annie Hiltebridle has been real ill the past week.

Miss Sallie Yingling has returned to her home in the city.

AND SHE KEPT ON SMOKING

"Aunt Chloe, do you think you are a christian?" asked a preacher of an old negro woman who was smoking a pipe.

"Yes, brudder, I 'specs I is."

"Do you believe in the Bible?"

"Yes, brudder."

"Do you know there is a passage in the Scriptures that declares that nothing unclean shall inherit the kingdom of Heaven?"

"Yes, I'se heard it."

"Well, you smoke, and there is nothing so unclean as the breath of a smoker. So what do you say to that?"

"Well, when I go dere I 'spects to leave my breff behind me."

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Westminster People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease often follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doaan's Kidney Pills which are so strongly recommended right here in this locality.

Mrs. Charles Hartdagen, Emmitsburg, Md., says: "I think Doan's Kidney Pills are fine and I gladly confirm the endorsement I gave them some years ago. I was troubled by rheumatic twinges and I had severe pains in my back. My eyes were weak. I was unable to get relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Another of my family also used Doan's Kidney Pills and was permanently cured of kidney trouble and rheumatic pains."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hartdagen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
