SIDE TWO

more frequently to the meetings during the coming year. Let me say for myself that I should be glad very much for withdrawal from the Committee

The $7000 — put down in the Report to the Board of Charities under the head of personal expenses of the Managers proves to be the result of clerical error. The person who made the Report should have put it under the head of Incidentals. Perhaps the best way would be to have inserted the matter before the Board of Charities by Mr. Rhodes to Mr. Phillips & Dodge with the division to make the corrections.

Yours truly
