0721

1880 Cooper Morris Incoming letters MS 1944

Hookfield Grove.
Epsom.
30 Oct. 1880

My very dear Friend,

I knew that I should have your sympathy as soon as you heard of our loss. I ought to have written to you, but the event almost overpowered us. My dear son died on the 18 June, he had for some time been out of health, and every now and then, we were anxious about him, because he was careless about himself and unwilling to have advice; but as in some respects he was hardy,