TAYLORSVILLE

Now that the groundhog course has been run, we have some assurances of spring. The twitter of the birds makes us feel as though we were to have better weather.

The following spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barnes: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Price, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jenkins, Messrs. Harry Barnes, Oliver Price, Albert and Frank Byers, Truman Barnes, Jas. and Frank Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, Sr., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rigler.

Mrs. Thomas Koontz, Jr., spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Belle Moore.

The oyster supper held by the Ladies' Aid was quite a success. Many thanks to those who succeeded in making it a success.

Whoa, mule! Whoa. Some of our young ladies being invited to a quilting and being without conveyance after consulting each other, concluded to hire the "barouche" owned by the firm of Barnes and McCleary and drawn by a seventeen hundred pound mule. They left here at 9.15 A. M. and reached their destination, two miles away, at 11.30 A. M. After relating their experience in handling the whip and pushing on the lines, their friend, Mrs. Price, decided to return by way of the Barnes and McCleary route. On their return they left at 2.30 P. M., reaching home at 7.30 P. M., all nerve racked and spattered with mud. Do you think they quilted enough to pay for their dinner, saying nothing of what their mule ate. (Dena, Ella and Zelma.)

SPRING--when the lawn takes on its dress of green--when the trees produce their beautiful foliage and blossoms,--and when all nature surrounding your home is at its best. All of this beauty will be crushed into ugliness if your fences are in bad condition. The care of a property can usually be judged by the condition of the fences,--whether in the front yard or in the back fields. Bad fences reduce the value of property considerably. We ask you to make a close examination of the famous Page Wire Fence sold by us. Positively one of the best on the market. Those who have used it will have nothing else. Fencing for the fields and pastures, and for the yards about the house with beautiful ornamental gates. Come in and see these fences and let us quote you the low prices.
