SIDE ONE

Olney 5mo 22. 82.

My dear Cousin
Caspar W. Morris.

Knowing thy hearty interest in every effort to promote the cause of Christ, or to repress the evil that abounds in the world around us, I incline to mail thee a copy of a brief Address, recently issued by the "Meetg. for Sufferings", of our Phila. Yearly Meeting. As it is stated, this was prepared under a deep feeling that several evils, of a somewhat hidden but none the less serious character, are growing in the community, and that if suffered to go unchecked, these cannot fail to lower the standard of morality, and infecting the best energies of who has often singularly blessed very feeble instrumentalities to the promotion of His blessed cause.

I need scarcely say that it would be gratifying to me to receive at thy leisure thy own impressions as to the character of the Address, & its adaptation to the ends in view — With affectionate regard, believe me thine sincerely
Sam'l Morris.
