SIDE ONE

New York Oct. 24/82.

Dear Doctor Harris.

Your very kind note reached me some days ago, and was very gratefully received. I must beg that you will not feel to your dear self to increase my correspondence. I have so much better unity that has nothing but a pony interest, that it is a relief to have a correspondent who writes on something beside summer. –

The days, after you left us were happy ones I assure you. I do not know that I told you, however, that the day before I left Mrs, I think the sweetest & fairest day I ever saw. –

But I am interrupted: May I let me here for you soon, & remember me very kindly to dear Hollingsworth, and accept for yourself the assurances of the

My affectionate remembrance of

A. D. Lawrence
