Additional Locals

Mr. L. A. Koontz writes that "rye heads are plentiful on the farm of Mr. Leonard Frizzell, Bloom, P. O., Md.," and encloses one in his letter as ocular evidence of the fact.

We are publishing in other columns of the Sentinel, Public Local Laws which were passed by the recent Legislature relating to Carroll county.

On Wednesday a local item, stating that snow was a possibility in May, but that frost was not to be apprehended, was written for the Sentinel. This morning ice was formed. On Wednesday the temperature was up to 80 degrees. Today it was down to freezing.

The members of the Westminster Girls' Club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Miss Anna Gehr, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denton S. Gehr, Bond street, opposite Belle Grove Square, in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. Hayes Wilson, of Dover, Del.

A preliminary meeting was held in Gamber last night for the organization of a local option campaign association for the Second precinct of Woolery's district. Mr. Jabez N. Barnes was elected chairman; Rev. W. F. Bauscher, secretary, and Mr. ——— Miller, treasurer. A committee was appointed to perfect arrangements for the association and a further meeting will be held at an early date.

Mrs. J. W. Reinecke, wife of Rev. J. W. Reinecke, pastor of Carroll Reformed charge, near this city, was taken Wednesday evening to the Union Protestant Hospital, Baltimore, for treatment. She was accompanied by Dr. L. K. Woodward. Her condition has improved so much that an operation will not be necessary and she will be able to leave the hospital tomorrow.

The Southern Maryland Society held its first annual banquet Wednesday night at the Hotel Belvedere, Baltimore. About one hundred and twenty-five members were present. They did not forget the old folks at home, nor did they forget to laud Baltimore, their adopted home, where they have made good. It was an interesting and entertaining occasion. A number of speakers gave very interesting talks, among whom was Judge James A. C. Bond, of this city. His subject was "The Southern Marylander in Exile." Dr. J. Clement Clark, of the Springfield Hospital, was one of the guests of the society.

The following persons have had the Chesapeake and Potomac telephone installed in their residences: Mrs. Sallie A. Smith, near Marston, New Windsor 38-14; Messrs. Edward E. Reindollar, Taneytown, Taneytown 5f; Samuel Nusbaum, Westminster, Westminster 13-1w; A. H. Bankard, Taneytown, Taneytown 39w; Claude B. Reifsnider, near Fountain Valley, Westminster 81-34; Frank W. Mather, Westminster, Westminster 246k; Samuel Greenholtz, near New Windsor, New Windsor 41-2; Nevin J. Royer, near New Windsor, New Windsor 41-3; W. E. Sauble, near New Windsor, New Windsor 41-4, and James D. Brown, near New Windsor, New Windsor 41-5.

Miss Carrie M. Niner, of Baltimore, will thank her many friends of this county and elsewhere and also the readers of the Sentinel if they will remember her by kindly sending her a birthday card to the following address, next Friday, May the 8th.

EXHIBITS OF BAD TASTE

There is being conducted, at the "Modernist studios" in New York, what is called an "Exposition of bad taste." It contains typical styles of house furnishing of 25 or more years ago. There are shown horse hair furniture, wax flowers, home made paintings, ornate china, eccentric statuary, "God bless our home" mottoes, etc.

The preceding generation had many very grotesque ideas about furnishing a home. Yet many of the people who laugh at these peculiarities may select a home setting that will seem just as ridiculous in another quarter century.

Probably our children will laugh at the fake oriental rugs that many wealthy people are now spreading on their floors. The idea has gotten abroad that anything bearing the talismanic name of some Persian or Turkish city is blessed by sweet and flowing harmonies of color.

As a fact, the oriental rug business is very much commercialized today. Many of the older rug makers had a wonderfully true sense of color harmonies. They produced an article that had artistic feeling and also wore a life-time.

Now the rug makers are running workshops and making rugs for wealthy American homes to order at high prices. The most garish and strident combinations of color are hashed together. Very likely the product will wear no better than a well made American factory rug.

There has been a violent fluctuation of furniture style from the scroll saw period to the angular severity of the mission type. On the whole, the change to simplicity was welcome. But it has made many living rooms look as bare and angular as a business office.

If furniture is simple, so as not to catch dust, and if it is comfortable, inviting, and homey, the "modernists" will never get much chance to laugh at it. One good test of the good taste of a purchase is whether you make it to use or to look at.

CHILD CROSS? FEVERISH? SICK?

A cross, peevish, listless child, with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrhea; grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a Worm Killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box today. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c, at your Druggist.
