n.d. Caspar Morris incoming letters A - Betts

SIDE TWO

valuable time by asking you to read my letter.
I hope you will all have a prosperous voyage & be really the better for your long travels. We hear from home that Papa & Mama & my sisters are soon going to the Sea side, I am very glad Papa will have the change before returning to Town. May I beg of you & Mrs Morris, when you send your portraits to him, to remember me & let me have them also? I should value them very much.
I am writing from the Air-Bath, where I am still shut up nearly every day - it really seems to do me good in relieving the congested lung & altogether conducing to the invigoration of the system.
The Dr anticipates a cure in my case, but not from this first trial - so perhaps, if we live till next summer we shall come here again.
My husband enjoyed very much his conversations with you - & I think he is more desirous than ever to visit America - You must not think of answering this letter, but I shall feel it a privilege to receive a
