C 8 1 1

n.d. Caspar Morris incoming letters A - Betts

~~me~~ - which I am as jealous to do: as I was to help in my own salvation. "Hard than nails." I shall be left I had believed my feelings but lately He has turned my faith into trust. You will I am sure agree with me in my great enjoyment & comfort in God's words P. 73 - 22 & 26 inclusive: I have seen scarcely anything of my beloved friend Fletcher Miss R. P. Smith - since she came to England. But we are both content with the will of God - & feel that "none teacheth as He" since I have been thus captured upon Him in this lonely place. Please tell your grandson that if he gets as far as here, we shall be very pleased to see him. The worthy Fondundrich my husband is managing Director at Cwm Avon - our station is Port Talbot on the G. W. R. Taibach is only the post town. With our united kind regards to Miss Morris - Believe me yours gratefully & very truly Louisa Barthwaite

My darling Father is much as usual - the last month has been anxious since, with so many failures in the City.