My dear Dr Morris

It was truly kind of you to send me your welcome letter in return for the photo: & I can't tell you what a pleasure it is to be remembered thus by my darling Father's great friend. I sent him your letter to read, she is writing to you herself. Thank God, he is still preserved thus, tho' in very delicate health, & he still gets thro' a wonderful amount of work, one way & another - tho' he does not go so often to the City - He would know, delight to hear
