Master John Gilbert Power, the little three and a half year old son of Mrs. Francis Power, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Gilbert, of this city, had his neck, shoulders and hand burned badly last night when an electric wire which had burned in two fell upon him. This occurred in front of the Firemen's Hall where some extra wiring had been done and when the power was turned on one of the wires burned through and fell to the pavement. Though the little fellow's burns are painful they are not serious.

Lining Up For The Fray

The anti-license forces in this county are lining up for the fray in an energetic manner and the leaders are receiving assurances of support from unexpected quarters. A real wave of anti-saloon influence seems to be sweeping over the county and the temperance advocates are being much encouraged by the outlook. Meetings are being held and workers entering the field with enthusiasm. These movements are preliminary and necessary to the beginning of the campaign for procuring the names of at least 25 per cent. of the voters of the county to the petition authorizing the election to be held. Meetings for this and the general work of the movement have been held during the past week, as follows:

BERRETT DRYS ORGANIZE

A correspondent of the Baltimore American states that on Saturday evening last, at a large meeting in Brandenburg Church, the voters of Berrett district, who represent the temperance cause, organized a league to carry on the crusade against the sale of liquor in that section. The meeting was attended by representatives of nearly every religious faith and political party. Women took an active part.

Robert J. Brandenburg, vice president of the Carroll county temperance organization, outlined the purpose of the meeting, after which Rev. Mr. Fielding offered prayer. Addresses were then made by Rev. Mr. Becker, pastor of the Lutheran church at Berrett; Dr. M. D. Norris, Rev. Mr. Bauscher, pastor of Brandenburg Church; Dr. S. F. Hess, Major A. M. Hall and Rev. Mr. Dickey.

A committee selected the following officers for the Berrett District League:, President, Joseph J. Brandenburg; vice presidents, James B. George, C. F. Beck, C. A. Conaway, Ira R. Davis and Thomas S. Gosnell; secretary, E. A. Shoemaker; treasurer, Jonathan M. Dorsey. At the next meeting a committee will be named for each school district. There are three saloons in Berrett district.

WESTMINSTER DISTRICT

Kolb temporary secretary. Messrs. Chas. O. 2. Its purpose shall be to enlist the sympathy and co-operation of all persons opposed to the saloon.

3. Its membership shall consist of all persons in Westminster District who are willing to work for temperance and the abolition of the saloons in Carroll county.

The election of four vice presidents, one from each election precinct of Westminster district, and appointment of an Executive Committee of twelve persons, three from each of the precincts, who shall have charge of the detail work of the organization was referred to the officers above named, who will appoint them after consultation with men prominent in the work in the various localities.

In response to calls from the meeting addresses were made by County Chairman George W. Yelser, Rev. Wm. L. Seabrook and District President Theo. F. Brown.

NEW WINDSOR DISTRICT

The men of New Windsor district met in the Firemen's Hall Tuesday night, May 25, to organize for the Local Option Campaign. Mr. Chas. W. Otto was chosen as temporary chairman. On Tuesday of last week, a very enthusiastic meeting was held in Mechanics Hall in the interest of Temperance and Local Option. Dr. J. J. Mrs. Susan Armstrong, wife of Daniel Armstrong of Lineboro, died at her home there on Sunday, May 24, aged 70 years.

She is survived by her husband and four children—George, Edward and Irvin Armstrong and Mrs. George Wertz and Mrs. James Wentz.

The funeral was held at Lineboro on Tuesday, Rev. Thos. S. Land her pastor (Ref.), assisted by Rev. J. B. Lau of the Lutheran Church, conducted the services.

Much is being written and many newspaper comments being made upon the lamentable occurrence on Monday night at St. John's College, which ended in the death of young Wm. R. Bowlus, but as the young men implicated in firing the fatal shot are to face a court or jury on the charge the Sentinel deems it proper to refrain from expressing a judgment of any sort in in relation to their guilt or innocence of criminal intent. Public sympathy must be strongly felt for the parents of the bright young man whose college career has been one of intellectual triumph, and for whom a brilliant future hade been predicted. He was yet a year under his majority. As stated in the Sentinel's Manchester correspondence he was a relative of Mr. Stanley Bowlus, principal of the Manchester High School.

ALLEMAN-COX

Quite a surprise was sprung upon our little town last Tuesday afternoon, when Postmaster L. M. Alleman walked out of his home a freshly married man, his bride being Miss Bessie M. Cox, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Cox, of Hampstead, Md. The bride and groom together with the bride's sister, Miss Helen Cox, left Hampstead for Gettysburg in the morning where the groom secured a marriage license. They then came to Littlestown and were joined as one by the groom's pastor, Rev. John J. Hill, in the presence of a few intimate friends in the groom's home on the Square. They shortly thereafter, left by automobile for Hanover, where they boarded the 4.30 train for New York and other points of interest. They are expected home this Thursday evening. The many friends of the groom here wish the couple unalloyed happiness.

IN MEMORIAM

CONAWAY—In commemoration of my dear father, Reuben N. Conaway, who passed beyond the "Great Divide," July 3rd, 1912.

Once more upon this hallowed mound,
Within death's silence camping ground.
We strew the fairest flowers found,
Amid the falling tear.

By his daughter,
Margaret Brandenburg.

In sad, but loving remembrance of Addie P. Gorsuch, who departed this life 16 years ago the 25th of this month.

She is home! God's peace be with her.
And with her who sits in night,
With the immemorial shadows
Closing round her love and light.
In memory we often think
Of one we loved so dear,
The vision grows so clear some times
We think she must be near.
By her mother, sister and brother.

Anyway Huerta's forces will stop running when they get to the Pacific ocean, as they are probably not accustomed to taking baths.

Down Grain Saved

JUST because your grain is down or tangled is no reason why you should lose it. Use an Osborne binder, which is built to pick up down and tangled grain. If necessary the binder can be used with the cutter bar resting on the ground. The construction of the platform and finger bar makes this possible.

The way to know these things is to see them for yourself. Come in and look over our Osborne binder. It has a lot of good points.

What Breaks Mower Knife Heads?

A SAGGING cutterbar. Use an Osborne mower and you never let the cutter bar sag back. When the bar tends to sag, one bolt removed and one twist of the eccentric bushing in the rear of the inner shoe realigns the bar and removes all sag—no danger of ever breaking a knife head from this cause.

The Osborne mower has its draft rod parallel to the tongue. This makes it work equally well up hill or down.

The cutter bar has great flexibility of movement, making it easy to cut on side hills and embankments.

The tilt can be adjusted closely to get a very low cut.

Come in and realign the cutter bar yourself. It's interesting and it's easy.
