n.d. Caspar Morris incoming letters A - Betts to a poor sinner - It was thro' hearing our friend, my beloved Mrs. R. P. Smith rather more than a year ago - that the Lord brought me to such blessing - I had never before heard - understood stand it - the truth clearly set forth - that the Lord Jesus is given to us as our life

drop self - live only in Him - The whole glorious truth involved in this - comes to me as water to a parched thirsty soul - now I can do little else, but praise God all day long - "Since Christ is mine, & I am His, how can I keep from singing?" - I often look back with great pleasure to the time when we so opportunely met you & Mr. Morris at Malvern - it would have been so pleasant to have enjoyed longer intercourse - you may remember I was taking the air both then, There is no doubt my health has been better & stronger ever since ~~better~~
It is very sweet to read your mention of my dear grand parents & aunt - how graciously is God answering their prayers in blessing upon their numerous grand children - I believe they will all be converted - I hope you & your family are well & prosperous - I indeed dear P. Morris - I have been
