n.d. Caspar Morris incoming letters A - Betts

I could not manage to call yesterday as I had so desired you will be kind enough to let me know when I yesterday
— I shall state hope you and Mrs Morris will come back again to meet your Son & daughter — if you cannot I hope you will let me know when they come to England — if I could do anything for her or show them any attention in my way I should be so very glad — I shall ever feel the very deepest gratitude to you, you

know indeed how much for me, and I wish I could express the half of what I feel — I do truly thank you with all my heart — it was such a pleasure & satisfaction to us all to have that dear little visit tho' so brief — I shall ever feel God's goodness in bringing me to join my own
of trial & sorrow — & though the sea is so soon to separate us in this world I look forward to meeting you in that bright future state where I am sure
