Mpl. Caspar Morris incoming Letters Biddle-C 1994

SIDE ONE

My dear Dr Morris

I enclose to you, as a friend, not as Manager of the Hospital, a note, placed in my hand by Miss Austin yesterday – asking frankly your advice how to reply.

Mr. Wolf & I had a conference of two hours with Miss Austin on Friday, and she was utterly surprised that there was any fault to be found with her now – thought every thing had settled down, and that gradually things were adjusting themselves – In regard to Mrs Patterson's dismissal, she gave quite a different color to that Dr. Shed
