BETHEL HEIGHTS

We are having plenty of nice refreshing rains now which are making everything look so nice, especially the blackberries, which we think will be a very plentiful crop throughout this section.

Mrs. Rebecca Richardson, of Baltimore, who had been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Miller, of Maple Spring, has returned to her old home in Baltimore.

Mr. Charles A. Conaway, of High Point View, was a recent caller at the home of Mr. J. D. Miller.

Mrs. Amanda J. Haines was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Streaker one day recently.

Miss Zola Streaker, of Sweet Air, is improving very slowly. Every one is sorry to know she has been so ill. As her vacation will be so short she will not be able to have much pleasure or recreation.

Messrs. Levi T. Haines and Harvey E. Pickett were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. J. D Miller.

Mrs. Edward Haines, of Locust Point, called to see her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. T. Haines, of Walnut Grove, one day recently.

Miss Ethel P. Pickett called to see Miss Matilda Shipley one day recently.

Misses Hilda M. Haines and Golda V. Haines, of Walnut Grove, called to see little Miss Margaret Miller, of near Bethel Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Shriver Pickett, near Daniel, spent from Saturday evening until Sunday with Mrs. P's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Haines, of Walnut Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pickett made a business trip to Sykesville one day recently.

Mrs. Shriver Pickett and Mrs. L. T. Haines called at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Gosnell on Sunday last.

Mr. Harold Crumbacker, of Stony Lonesome, was a recent caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller.

Mr. Edward Brice, of Baltimore, is spending some time with his cousin, Mr. J. D. Miller.

Miss Melva Penn and Miss Hilda Haines called to see Mrs. J. D. Miller and daughter Margaret on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. P. Miller of Maple Spring is somewhat better at this writing but is still suffering a great deal pain yet. My heart sympathy is with her.

Dr. L. H. Haley, of Pickett's Corner, is still very ill at this writing.

Mrs. Ella Hood and daughter Sophronia called to see Mrs. H. E. Pickett of Kildere Valley on Monday morning.

A small hail storm passed through this vicinity on Sunday evening. No damage being done here but in other parts of this county it cut some of the grain right bad and beat it down.

Misses Ethel and Lillian Pickett called to see little Margaret Miller one day recently.

Mr. Oscar Haines spent from Saturday until Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi T. Haines, of Walnut Grove.

Mr. J. P. Miller, of Maple Spring, made a business trip to Berrett, one day last week.

Mr. James Miller, of Maple Spring, and Miss Gladys Unglesbee, near Cover's Corner, called to see Rev. Mr. V. K. Betts and family, of Paradise.

Mr. Bryan Unglesbee, of near Winfield, and Miss Clarice Haines, near Woodbine, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Westminster.

Miss Lizzie Wolbert and Miss Myrtle Conaway, of near Woodbine, were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. V. K. Betts, of Paradise.

Mrs. Pearl Davis, of Westminster, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Unglesbee, of Cover's Corner.

Mr. J. D. Miller, of Sweet Air and Mr. Edward Brice, of Baltimore, called to see Mr. James Pickett, of Pickett's Corner.

Mr. Toby Gosnell was a Sunday guest of Mr. Edward Unglesbee, of Cover's Corner.

Preaching Sunday morning at Bethel at 10.30; Sunday school 9.30 A. M. Come one and all.

SILVER RUN

Rev. and Mrs. S. C. Hoover entertained last Sunday, Rev. J. G. Rupp, field secretary of the Foreign Missionary Board of the Reformed Church, and Bro. Ito, of North Japan College, of Sendai, Japan. This college has an enrollment of 550 boys of which Prof. Ito is one of the teachers. Both Rev. Mr. Rupp and Prof. Ito spoke in the Reformed church last Sunday morning.

The Lutheran church has installed a gas lighting plant in the church. The lights were used for the first time last Sunday evening and all were pleased with them.

Mr. Nelson Brown lost a valuable horse from paralysis last week.

Several heavy thunder storms passed over this section last week. On Thursday lightning struck in 5 trees within a radius of 10 feet in Mr. Jerome Koontz's woods, and on Sunday lightning struck in Mrs. Kate Hull's barn but did very little damage.

Misses Mary Frock and Bessie Brown are visiting relatives in Charleston, W. Va., and Berryville, Va. They were accompanied by Miss Ethel Royer, who had been visiting relatives here last week.

UNIONTOWN

Edgar, second son of George Stultz, was taken to the University hospital last Thursday and operated on for appendicitis. At last account he was doing well.

Reuben Laurence, son of Thomas Laurence, near town, fell from a cherry tree last week and broke his leg. He is improving.

Mrs. Jacob Price is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Judson Hill, in Taneytown.

Charles Crumbacker and family, of Clear Ridge, moved on Wednesday to the house lately occupied by William Bankerd in this place.

Elmer Yingling, of Baltimore, is spending his vacation with his uncle, L. F. Eckard, and family.

Mrs. George Slonaker has an unusual display of hydrangea blooms; 127 bunches on one bush.

Miss Marie Arnold, Baltimore, is visiting her friend, Miss Diene Sittig.

Mrs. Annie Hoyt is spending some time in Hanover.

Mrs. William Rodkey is visiting her son, Charles and family, in Baltimore.

The Bethel Sunday school will hold its usual picnic and treat on the school ground July 8th, in the evening.

NO STORE EVER GAVE SUCH WONDERFUL BARGAINS AS YOU'LL FIND HERE TODAY

OUR GREAT Manufacturers' Relief Sale STARTS TODAY

EVERYBODY KNOWS that this has been a decidedly "off season." Manufacturers have had a most disastrous experience. Many orders have been countermanded and big surplus stocks accumulated. The makers were forced to sacrifice their merchandise to a greater degree than ever before. Buyers were scarce—but necessity knows no law—the goods HAD to be sold. READY CASH worked wonders with these over-anxious manufacturers—result, here you will find good and wanted merchandise at the lowest figure ever quoted.

It's Almost Like Having the Cash In Your Pocket Doubled

MANUFACTURERS offered good and desirable merchandise at amazingly low prices, but there were few buyers. WE bought liberally and for cash and were enabled to almost name our own prices. No other store can or will sell new, desirable and dependable merchandise at anything like these "RELIEF SALE" money-saving prices.

You Can Profit As Never Before. Let Nothing Prevent Your Coming.
