SIDE ONE

Dear Dr Morris

May I beg your acceptance of this book? It has proved such a precious "Comforter" to my dear Sister in the past few weeks, in fact its voice has spoken to us all — I at once thought of Mrs Beach & yourself as friends who I knew would enjoy it & have just succeeded in getting it from N. York — I do not like books of extracts usually, but this is a wonderfully well executed mosaic I think, and coming from other ages & varied minds shows that Christ's true disciples
