C 8 6 4

Rpd. Caspar Morris incoming letters Biddle-C 1994

SIDE TWO

know would not understand my case I have no heart strange Doctors beside this to try any . I know my own Dear Doctor Morris will not let me suffer should I have one of my severe attacks of illness. My faith is strong enough to know that My Heavenly Father will not let me suffer there will be some way provided for my relief. I am just now at a very critical period of my life, when of course Medical supervision is really necessary. Doctor Chester Morris always attended me in your absence when I was suffering from internal troubles and always promised to come when I needed him. I have not had to consult him for many a year, a few weeks ago "Doctor Chester" told me "to send for Doctor Morris" but I did not send thinking I would do without any treatment just then. Last May you attended me so very kindly for some little time, he found it necessary to remove something that was growing inside of me. I had suffered for a long time hoping the pain would subside without having to trouble the Doctor when I could not endure it any longer I had to send, and oh how kindly he attend to me until I was quite