1871-1872 Caspar Morris journal 1999

Caspar Morris
journal 1871-72

well as with us in our New land One God & Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Worshipped by those who seek Him in Spirit and in truth. As high those who call upon Him faithfully amid the wilderness forests and in quiet Sanctuaries as in the great Cathedrals where "Loud anew, shall it declare and shall again" "Die on the walls but live to God".

Brussels Augt 4th 1871

We have at last entered on our European tour time for this time has been spent in preparation and the hurry and discussion of plans has been brought with the haste of rapid visits to a few of the more prominent objects of interest which crowd around the newly arrived traveller from the New World. Every thing is strange. That which is only of yesterday appears ancient to those who have been accustomed to see antiquity only in the great works of God; and nowhere meets with any thing challenging veneration from its age, which is the work of man.
Tombs Monuments and Churches of a century or two attract attention In various parts of England there are Cathedrals, Churches, chapels and Colleges which to us are great & ancient from this contrast. And many objects of interest from their ~~[illegible]~~ of plan and solidity of execution. The beauty of the land scape as we hurried through