THE SHARPLES MECHANICAL MILKER

The cost of milking cows can be reduced seventy-five per cent. or you can milk four times as many cows with the same number of men. One operator and one boy, to carry milk and assist, can properly milk one hundred cows in less than two hours, giving independence from hired help in case of necessity.

The improvement in the cow's condition, resulting from the thorough, quick, gentle and regular work of the milker, will induce an increased milk production.

A far purer product; lower bacterial count and more valuable milk is assured, because all stable air is entirely excluded and the milking parts are so easily and thoroughly cleansed.

We have just received a supply of these labor saving devices and are ready to prove to you their real merits.

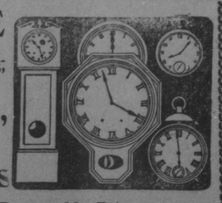

Another Car Load of International Engines was just unloaded. All sizes and models. Let us demonstrate them to you.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be at the next General Election for members of Congress, the same being a general election, to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at said General election the vote on the proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon such ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment," and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by the said Article 14 of this Constitution, and if it shall appear to the Governor that the majority of the votes cast at said election on said amendment were cast in favor thereof, the Governor shall by his proclamation declare the said amendment, having received the majority of votes, adopted by the people of Maryland as part of the Constitution thereof, and thenceforth said amendment shall be part of said Constitution.

HUNTING LAWS

As the hunting season is rapidly approaching it is well that all should know the law. Guy W. Steele, Esq., has very kindly prepared the following summary of the laws relating thereto in Carroll county, and the Sentinel is glad to give them publicity.

The last Legislature passed a game law (Acts of 1914, Ch. 472) applying to the whole State making a uniform open season from November 10th till December 24th, and prohibiting hunting on Sunday or when the ground is covered with snow sufficient to track game and allowing shooting only between sunrise and sunset. The complete provision of the law is as follows:

"No person shall shoot, trap, catch or kill, or gun or hunt for any partridge, or quail, English or Mongolian pheasant, American pheasant, dark neck Bohemian pheasant, pheasant or ruffed grouse, rabbit, squirrel, wild turkey, woodcock or deer within the State of Maryland between the twenty-fourth day of December and the tenth day of November in any year, exclusive of both dates. Nor upon Sunday or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track the birds or game above mentioned. And there shall be a daily closed season on all the above enumerated game birds and game animals, with the exception of rabbits, between sunset and sunrise."

The violation of this law carries with it a fine of not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00; one-half of which is paid to the Deputy Game Warden, Constable or other person who shall procure conviction.

In addition, it is no longer in Carroll county lawful to sell any game, except rabbits, or ship it out of the county. This is provided by Chapter 187 of the Acts of 1914 which is as follows:

"That no person, firm or corporation shall buy, barter, sell or offer for sale, ship or export from Carroll county or have in possession for the purpose of shipping or exporting, any partridge, quail, pheasant, dove, squirrel or woodcock; except that the bona fide guest of any land owner, authorized to hunt in said county, may on leaving take as his personal baggage and plainly exposed to view, not more than ten partridges or quail, three pheasants, twelve squirrels, six woodcock and twelve doves, or a non-resident under a license taken out in Carroll county may carry away with him the same number of pieces of game, for his own use, but not for sale."

The penalty for the violation of this Act is from $1.00 to $5.00 for each piece of game, sold, shipped or had in possession for such purposes; one-half of which fine is to be paid to the informer. It is expressly made the duty of all game wardens, constables and police officers to see to the enforcement of this law.

Another law applying to the whole State (Code, Act 99, Sec. 40,) prohibits the killing of more than 15 partridges or 6 pheasants, or 25 doves, or 12 woodcock, or 12 rabbits, or 12 squirrels in any one day. The penalty for the violation of this Act is $5.00 for each piece of game killed over the above limit.

A law passed in 1873, (Chap. 341,) relating expressly to Carroll county prohibits the killing of any blue birds, robins, woodpecker, doves, whippoor wills, sparrows, wrens, martins or any other insectiverous birds, except by a person on his own premises, at any time. A general law passed by the last Legislature (Acts of 1914, Ch. 720,) prohibits the killing of the enumerated birds as well as larks, anywhere. This may be construed to repeal the local law of Carroll county which permitted the shooting on the owners premises. The general law also prohibits the having in possession or the wearing of the plumage, wings or feather of any of these birds. In fact it may be stated that it is lawful now to kill only game birds in the open season, and hawks, birds destructive of poultry, English sparrows, crows and black birds, at any time of the year. Of course the law does not prevent the keeping of mocking birds or other song birds in cages.

A license of $10.00 to shoot in Carroll county is required of every one not a bona fide resident or taxpayer, which license gives the non-resident only the same rights as citizens of the county. A land owner may by express authority extend permission to kill game upon his land to whom he pleases, unless the person is engaged in taking or killing game for market. The penalty for violating the provisions of this Act is a fine of $10.00 for each piece of game found in his possession or proved to be killed by the non-resident and the forfeiture of his gun, which becomes the property of the person on whose premises he may be found gunning. The informer gets one-half of the fine.

This non-resident license law is contained in Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1894, and though it has been law for twenty years has never been observed or enforced.

In addition to these laws it is made a crime (Code, Act 27, Sec. 233) to hunt with dog or gun upon the land of another without leave or license of the owner or person in possession of the land being first had and obtained. The fine is not less than $5.00 nor more than $25.00. There is no provision in this law providing for any part of the fine to be paid to the informer.

It is claimed the United States is defenceless, but anyway the army is scattered around at inaccessible spots where the enemy can't get them.

After the war is over, the Belgians will kindly be allowed to go home and build cities for the contending powers to destroy in the next fighting.

An article of clothing may seem too poor to throw into the ashheap, but it is never too bad to dispose of at a rummage sale.
