MANCHESTER

The members of the Manchester High school Literary society gave an entertainment on Monday afternoon in honor of the Day and were assisted by the scholars of the other rooms. Rooms 1 and 2 that are communicative with flying doors were in full decorations with bunting and flags with a large picture of Washington prominent among the display. The attendance of patrons and friends was large. A 2 P. M. Miss Mae Musselman called the social to order. Miss Mildred Hanson at the organ, the scholars from the intermediate and primary departments marched to the music and were seated, when the following program was given: Singing, "Ode to Washington," the secretary, Miss Fannie Shower, followed with the reading of the minutes and roll call; distribution of souvenirs, "The little hatchet," to visitors and pupils; essay, George Washington, Anna Ridgely; recitation, Ober Witter; recitation, Our Flag, Margaret Zulauf; reading, William Musselman; recitation, "Guess Who," Corinne Miller; singing, Washington; recitation, Luther Menchey; anecodote, Helen Burgoon; recitation, Elsie Denner; reading, Mildred Hanson; recitation, David Frock; address, Rev. J. B. Lau; singing, Mount Vernon Bells; critics report, Helen Burgoon; reading, journal; adjournment.

Miss Margaret Fuhrman on York street, had quite a company of nieces and friends at her home last week whose coming continued from Tuesday to Saturday when the hostess gave a social in honor of her guests that evening. It appears they all had come for a good time and amid the games and amusements they certainly enjoyed a pleasant evening until a late hour. The hostess played her part well and furnished fine refreshments. This was followed by a taffy party on Monday evening and from the reports of the taffy and caramels that were boiled it must have been a party of par excellence in sweetness. The visiting guests at the home were Misses Helen Greenholtz, Lottie Lusnauer, Lizzie Myers, Baltimore; Eva K. Preston, Hampstead; Messrs. Bayard Devilbiss, Walkersville; Marion Porterfield, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Elmer Hobbs, Colesville, Md.; H. A. Myers, Chas. Miller, Wm. Culp, Baltimore. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Musselman, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. J. Lamotte, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gregory, Mesdames W. D. Hanson, Wm. F. Masenhimer, Dr. J. H. Sherman, T. C. Turner, Misses Winifred and Julia Masenhimer, Carrie Lamotte, Corinne, Grace and Dora Leese, Mr. Herald Frankforter and Dr. League.

Mr. Paul L. Leese, one of our promising young men took train on Wednesday morning, 17th inst., for a trip to Pennsylvania and several days after a number of his friends received announcement that he was married at 10.30 Thursday, 18th, at the Covenant Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, to Miss Clara D. Wolfe, of Loysville, Pa., by the Rev. Harvey Klair. They were attended by the Misses Adeline and Leah F. Lush. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the Misses Lush, 1706 N. 5th street, Harrisburg. After the festivity the bride and groom left for a wedding trip and expect to arrive at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Leese, on Saturday evening, who will give them a reception?

The Dixie people were here last week and gave a moving picture show every evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall. They have a complete outfit to furnish their electricity that is carried in a large wagon, but they are about changing to an auto truck to move them from place to place.

The family and a number of neighbors and friends gave Mr. John Hersh a surprise Faust Nacht party at his home on the evening of the 16th. The occasion was his birthday and the venerable gentleman greatly enjoyed it.

After the morning service in Trinity Reformed Church on Sunday last a congregational meeting was held in regard to the building of a new parsonage. A motion prevailed in which the trustees were instructed to canvas the membership and ascertain what amount of subscription they can raise.

Mrs. Charles Grove, who has been at the home of her son Nelson, in Germantown, for several months, was taken suddenly ill last week and is confined to her bed. She is nearing the 83rd mile stone of her pilgrimage. Her daughter, Mrs. Henry Smith, of York, visited her on Saturday and Sunday and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dubbs on Sunday evening.

Mr. Horatio S. Oursler, a member of the firm of the Carroll Cigar Company, showed us a jumbo cigar the other day three feet eight inches long, made of solid tobacco that certainly was a beauty for correctness of make, being well shaped at both ends with the wrapper in as regular roll as a small cigar. It was made by Mr. Archy Menchey, one of their workmen and certainly displays his master workmanship. It was made for a display in the show windows of one of their progressive customers in Philadelphia. Its weight was 3|4 of a pound and was shipped by express.

Mrs. Jno. F. B. Weaver, who had been confined to her room for several weeks is now improving. Mr. and Mrs. Whiteman, of Littlestown, Pa., were guests at the home from Saturday to Monday.

Mr. Geo. A. Crouse arrived home on Monday evening after spending several weeks with his brother, E. H. Crouse, and family in Reading, Pa.

The Aid Society of Immanuel Lutheran Church held its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, February 22, in the social room of the new church. The meeting was opened by singing America and responsive scripture reading. At roll call the dues amounted to $21.05. The election of officers next in order resulted as follows: Mrs. H. S. Musselman, president; Miss Emma E. Trump, vice president; Mrs. Wm. L. F. Bergman, secretary; Miss Adda L. Trump, treasurer. The society decided to hold its annual social on Easter Monday evening, April 5th, in the social room of the church. Business through, the members were entertained with the following program: Instrumental solo, Miss Miriam Bergman; recitation, Maurice Ament; recitation, Florence Marshall; instrumental duet, Mrs. E. Berwager, Miss Mildred Hanson; recitation, Gertrude Barnhart; piano solo, Laman Hoffman; recitation, Howard Wink; Song of Washington, by the juniors. After uniting in the Lord's Prayer the society adjourned to meet March 29th.

Mrs. D. G. Everhart and son, of Frederick, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Washington Musselman, on North Main street.

EASTVIEW

Appropriate exercises were given by the teacher and pupils of Eastview public school on Monday afternoon, February 22nd, in memory of the anniversary of Washington and Lincoln's birthdays. Reading, recitations and songs were well rendered by those who participated in the joint exercise and the pupils seemed very much inspired by the facts learned from the noble character and lives of the two honored men as set forth by Mr. Caple, their teacher, whom the pupils highly esteem.

The health of the community is good at present and the pupils are making a very good average attendance, especially the boys who are averaging 22 to 25 enrolled. Some of the girls have been on the sick list but are out again attending school at this writing.

Miss Margaret Ruth Caple and Miss Leona Ward were both sick with tonsilitis.

Some of our farmers here have been taking advantage of the good weather and good price in wheat by hauling it to market. Also a number of hogs were shipped from here this week.

Mrs. John Conaway, of this place, who is taking treatment in Baltimore, is very much improved at present.

Miss Anna Derr, of Westminster, who had been spending some time here with her friend, Miss Elsie Conaway, has returned to her home.

Mr. Walter Shipley and family, of this vicinity, have been home the past two weeks with Mr. Shipley's parents, of Sandyville. Mr. Shipley's father had been very ill with neuritis but we are glad to learn that he is improving at this writing.

Mr. A. N. Zentz and family, of near Eastview, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Caple, of Eastview, last Sunday.

Miss Elsie Conaway and her friend, Miss Anna Derr, spent the week end in Baltimore visiting Mrs. M. O. Conaway, who is there sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Caple and son Lester spent a few days last week with relatives in Baltimore.

On Monday evening, 22nd inst., about one hundred neighbors and friends of Eastview and Smallwood communities gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Arnold, of this place, armed with all kinds of country musical instruments of the calithumpian organization for the pirpose of serenading their oldest son, Mr. David A. Arnold, and his bride, who were recently united in the bonds of matrimony. After surrounding the premises several times to the martial strains of old times or some other well known airs of Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the call for music was given by the captain, Mr. Albert Frick, and was responded to with full force of the Band and musicians, who were rewarded by the appearance of Mrs. Bride, attired in full suit of blue serge and the groom, attired in full suit of conventional black, with their usual good natured smile, looking their best. They received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of all present. The father of the groom commanded the captain to form his troop in line when they were sumptuously supplied and refreshed with the good things of life, after which they extended their hearty appreciation, to host and hostess for their hospitality and wishing all a happy and properous future, the musicians returned to their homes amid the echoes of three cheers for bride and groom.

BACHMAN'S VALLEY

We are having some rain after several days of nice weather, which was putting the roads in better shape.

Messrs. Geo. H. Everhart and David Sterner, two well known and experienced wood choppers, were making posts in the woods on Tuesday.

Mr. Ervin Kritzer, employed by Mr. Sterling G. Bixler, met with quite an accident on Monday afternoon while engaged at rolling logs. He was steppinig across some logs when one of the logs rolled against one of his limbs. He was badly bruised and at present can not walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Noble and son Richard were at Pleasant Hill and Hanover last Saturday.

Mr. Geo. M. Resh and Mr. Elton Warehime called on Mr. Daniel Noble Saturday evening.

We are glad to report that Mr. Luther Lippy is seen on the roads again after several weeks of sickness.

Mr. Chas. Coppersmith, who was quite sick last week, is reported to be convalescing.

Miss Mary Noble had been confined to the house by sickness since last week, but is much better again.

Mr. Chas. Coppersmith assisted Mr. Francis Klinedinst in butchering hogs on Monday morning.

Messrs. Daniel Noble and son and J. W. Frock went to Hanover on Wednesday where Mr. Daniel Noble sold a large pair of mules.

Leonard and John accompanied by their best friends, went to Hanover on Tuesday evening to attend church

Mr. Theo. F. James, who had intended to have public sale, has relinquished that purpose and rented a large farm from Mr. Geo. Shue. The farm is located 4 miles from Littlestown, in Adams county, Pa.

Mr. Harry Klinedinst, of Hanover, is stopping with his brother, Mr. Francis Klinedinst, of Bachman's Valley.

Mr. John A. recently received $1.50 a day for loading manure.

Mr. Otto Harmon, the well known farmer, is doing lots of work on the Bixler farm, where he expects to move in the near future.

Miss Brown has been a visitor for several days at the home of Mrs. Mary Bixler.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wertz and Mrs. Jacob Wildasin and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bachman last Sunday.

YOUR COLD IS DANGEROUS BREAK IT UP—NOW

A Cold is readily catching. A run-down system is susceptible to Germs. You owe it to yourself and to others of your household to fight the Germs at once. ## UNIONTOWN

Last Friday morning the team driven by Ross Hiltebridle started to run and he climbed out on the tongue thinking to get control of the horses, but fell to the ground and was badly bruised, the horses tramping him. He is improving and able to be out some.

Solomon Myers and wife spent part of last week with their son Howard, in the city.

Mrs. A. C. Fritz, Linwood, visited her father, Robert Davidson, and sister, several days.

Mrs. Wedney Bowersox and daughter and Mrs. John Warner and daughter were visitors at the home of their father, Lewis Waltz, this week.

Dr. L. C. Routson and son Clyde spent last Friday at T. H. Routson's.

W. P. Englar and son have arranged to have gasoline more convenient for the auto trade and have a pumping station near the road. The tank is sunk some distance back.

Newton Gilbert came from Annapolis last Friday but when his auto struck some of our roads it took coaxinig to get up some of the hills. A large auto furniture van from the city brought a part of J. E. Formwalt's furniture here the same day. Those running it found some trouble in getting through the mud.

George Slonaker has the foundation dug for his new house. He changed the location from where the old one was.

Miss Sadie Clingan, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mervin Cashman, of Frizellburg.

Don't forget the children's entertainment at the school house Saturday evening.

Samuel Repp has been on the sick list this week.

UNION MILLS

The giant ash tree that stood on the grass plot below what was formerly Wolf's mill and which had weathered the storms of more than a century, was so badly damaged by fire when the mill burned down, a few years ago, that the present owner of the property, George Hesson, thought the tree would die and had it cut down. The growth rings of the tree indicate an age of 114 years and its measurement four and a half feet in diameter. The trunk will make an immense saw log and the main branches will also make a number of others of good size, all of which have been sold to Arthur L. Hollinger, who will have them sawed into lumber for the manufacture of hand rakes.

Mr. Noah C. Wantz has sold his farm, one mile from Union Mills, containing 19 1|2 acres, to Franklin Stevenson, of Stonersville, for $3200. Mr. Wantz has bought a property near Annapolis, Md., upon which he will move this spring.

On Monday evening last a revival was started at Moorhead M. E. Church by its pastor, Rev. Ellis B. Davidson, of Littlestown, Pa.

Mr. Oscar Bowman and family, of Hanover, Pa., visited the family of Daniel P. Frock last Sunday.

James Shriver was home from school to spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shriver, the first of this week.

Miss Mary Bankert had as her guest over last Sunday, one of her schoolmates, Miss Helen King, of Westminster.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Cretin spent Sunday and Monday last with Mr. Cretin's brother-in-law, James McCall, of Baltimore.

GIST

On Saturday as Mrs. Samuel Wilson was returning home from her aunt's, Mrs. John Cook, near Winfield, with whom she had spent the afternoon, she met with a painful accident. The shafts broke, causing the horse to run up on the bank throwing Mrs. Wilson out. One arm was broken at the wrist and it was also sprained. Fortunately the horse did not run away.

Miss Ilena Snider spent from Thursday until Tuesday with Miss Bertha Shipley, of Berrett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brown Sunday.

MILLERS

George Barnhart, of Galesburg, Illinois, and Miss Lizzie Barnhart, of Patapsco, visited their sister, Mrs. George Caltrider, the past week.

The following visited at the home of John Graf last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. John Keck and daughter Mary, of Manchester; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graf, Mr. and Mrs. William Hosfeld, Mrs. Cramer, Miss Lottie Dell, Messrs. Harvey Miller, Elmer Smith, Preston Miller, Albert Graf, LawrenceCramer, Jacob Graf, Fred Graf, John Kress, Henry Graf and John Rinehart.

Daniel Miller and family, of Alesia, visited John K. Miller and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Logisdon and children, of Baltimore, spent Sunday and Monday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Theodore Miller, who had been very ill for several weeks, is able to be about again.

The sale of George Caltrider was well attended last Saturday and fairly good prices were realized.

Theodore Miller received a letter from Newport News, Va., from his son Herman, telling of his safe arrival to this country again, after making a trip to Norway and back. Among other things he tells of having come through the North Sea and saw a mine put in the water by one of the warring nations; also a ship blown up by a mine. Herman intends going to Cuba, thence to New Orleans and probably back to Norway before he visits home.

George DeHoff, of Baltimore, visited friends here last Saturday.

Preaching here Sunday evening.

IN MEMORIAM

Bloom.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear molher, Mary Ellen Bloom, who departed this life two years ago, February 28, 1913.

Not dead—what a beautiful thought
To cheer us through life's dreary way,
Not dead, but bloomed into life,
Where time is eternally day.
By her daughter Sarah.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of Roscoe E. G. Hood, who departed this life February 27th, 1914. One year ago today. He was a dear son and a loving brother.

Still in the memory of those you loved,
Love for you will remain;
We miss you more than words can tell;
Your absence gives us pain.

Yet He that watches o'er us all,
And does all for the best,
Knows that our grief has been sincere,
Since you were laid to rest.

Ah! since then our lives are saddened,
Since that day our hopes are slain,
But his voice seems sweetly saying,
Courage, we shall meet again.

By the family.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad, but loving remembrance of our dear father, Joseph Helwig, who departed this life one year ago today, February 15, 1914.

We miss thee from our home, dear father,
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee;
We miss thee everywhere.

Have you a father? Love him well
While he is spared on earth,
Wait not till death shall call him home
To know his precious worth.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In his lonely, silent grave.

How long he struggled against disease
That baffled skill and care,
How long he lingered, racked with pain,
And suffering hard to bear.

Farewell, farewell father dear,
No more on earth we see you here,
But in that world so bright and fair,
We hope to meet our father there.

You are not forgotten, dear father,
Nor ever will you be,
For as long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.

Loving and tenderly we laid you to rest,
Away from earth's sorrows and care,
We hope you are waiting to welcome us home,
And blessings of heaven to share.

By his wife and children.

Grasselli Lime and Sulphur Solution for Spraying

The value of Lime Sulphur Solution as an insecticide and a fungicide is due to the actual combined Lime and Sulphur in Solution.

Grasselli Lime Sulphur Solution contains 35 per cent combined Lime and Sulphur in solution at 32 to 33 degrees Beaume, the maximum that will stay in solution under various climatic conditions to which it is liable to be exposed.

It is a clear, cherry colored liquid, free from sediment and works through the nozzle of the spray pump easily. Don't be pursuaded into buying a solution that is just as good as Grasselli. You may get "Stung." There are so many so-called spraying solutions on the market today that a man has to know just what he is buying. Buy Grasselli and you will take no chance.

A solution that is not clear and free from sediment will clog up your spray pump and cause you an endless amount of trouble.

Insist on Grasselli. Special Price on Barrel Lots

Grasselli Arsenate of Lead for Spraying

Great care should be exercised in the selection of the brand of your Arsenate of lead; as the Soluble Arsenic causes great foliage injury unless the arsenic and the lead are properly combined. Grasselli Arsenate of Lead contains less than 1|2 per cent Soluble Arsenic.

The Empire King Spraying Pump

This pump has Automatic Mechanical Agitator which insures the perfect mixing of the solution and an Automatic Brush for keeping the strainer clean. This brush feature is the greatest yet as it will save the working parts of the pump from becoming clogged with sediment.

You cannot scorch the foliage with this pump. The cylinder and all the working parts of this pump are solid brass

We have a proposition on this Pump that can't be "beat." Come in and let us tell you about it

Children Cry
CASTORIA

The situation at besieged Przemysl, where they are eating horses, is almost as pitiful as at the lunch rooms of America, where they are reduced to eating dogs.

Not many ball games Washington's birthday, but the young people are appropriately and thoughtfully cherishing his memory by dancing the fox trot.
