MANCHESTER

The members of Carroll Encampment No. 17, I. O. O. F., at their regular meeting on Monday evening had with them Elias B. Hartle, of Hagerstown, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Maryland; Geo. P. Stein, Grand Senior Warden; S. H. Foxwell, Grand Representative; William A. Jones, Grand Secretary; William Hanaman, Grand Sentinel. After a short session the doors were thrown open to the members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F., who were there by invitation to greet the grand officers and participate in the festivities of the occasion. P. G. P., Geo. S. Motter in the chair, called to order and introudced G. S. Jones who made one of his telling addresses covering the ground of the subordinate as well as the patriarchal branch of the order with telling truths why subordinates should become members of the higher branch. This was supplemented by Senior Warden Stein and Grand Sentinel Hanaman in short addresses. At this period the chairman changed the program and formed the grand officers in line with the patriarchs, followed by the subordinates in a march to the banquet room where plates were laid for fifty or more. After a blessing by G. Rep. Foxwell all were seated and soon were furnished with Al bean soup to which were added ham sandwiches, pickles and coffee that all enjoyed. This through, cigars were passed, and toast master Motter called to the floor Grand Patriarch Hartle who made a ringing address that made the members forget their smoke to pay strict attention to the telling words as they fell from the speakers lips. He was followed by G. Rep. Foxwell whose address was along the lines of Friendship and was no less telling in its effect. After a short recess as a social period Grand Sect'y. Jones took the opportunity to press upon the membership the doing of the little things that are the secrets of increasing membership and holding them faithful to the end. Upon the whole it was quite a lovefeast for all present.

A very enjoyable social was given by the family of Mrs. Elizabeth Graf on Saturday evening, 27 ult., at her home half a mile north of town. It was the occasion of her 88th birthday. The home was nicely decorated with evergreens and red bells were so hung that they formed the 88. Already in the hours of the evening the invited guests arrived and extended their congratulations to the honored lady cheerful and happy. Music was plentiful and all entered into the spirit of the amusements so that time sped. Refreshments of cake, caramels, fruit, etc., were served in abundance, among which was a large birthday cake embellished with her name and age. In her womanhood days she and husband bid farewell to home and friends in Germany and came to this, their adopted home. After living at Woodensburg for several years they moved into this section where they bought a small tract of land and built the home and by thrift and industry they improved the land and where during a widowhood of forty or more years she was able to rear her family and now to enjoy the fruits of her labors in a comfortable home with her youngest son Henry and family to care for her in her declining days. Those of the company were: Mrs. Elizabeth Graf, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graf and sons Jacob and Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Graf, Mr. and Mrs. John Hersh, Mr. and Mrs. George Rusk, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hersh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warehime and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Stump and daughter Willa, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bollinger, Edward Graf, Mrs. Frank Wilhelm, Charles, Oliver and William Graf, Charles Herpst, Miss Lizzie Graf, of Baltimore, who presented her mother with a bouquet of carnations, roses and ferns. Mr. John Hersh delivered an address in German which was much appreciated by the family and friends.

Mr. Paul Leese and bride after enjoying a week very pleasantly among friends on their wedding trip arrived at the home of the groom on York street on Saturday and received a warm welcome and found the home in readiness for a reception in their honor during the evening. As the shades gathered the guests began to arrive and were warmly greeted. After extending their congratulations the social circle was much enjoyed during which period abundant refreshments were served and enjoyed. The happy couple received many useful and handsome presents of china and silverware, cut glass, linens and furniture. Those of the company were: Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leese, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Leese, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baltozer, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Leese and sons, Mr and Mrs. H. M. Loats, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Menchey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Bixler, Mr. and Mrs. H. F Leese, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leese, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leese, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. L. Wink and son, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gregory, Dr. T. S. Land, Mesdames Wm. F. Masenhimer, Wm. Lloyd, Mrs. Edgar S. Nagle, Lloyd Loats and daughters, Misses Grace, Dora, Mary, Ella and Ada Leese, Margaret A. Fuhrman, Irene M. Sherman and Maggie Fuhrman. It was a late hour when the company said the good nights, leaving their best wishes with the happy couple that their's may be a long life of prosperity and happiness.

On Wednesday evening of last week Messrs. Grover and Horatio Graf, Rohrbaugh, Hahn, Hare and Schearer left for Iowa where they have employment on farms.

Gertrude, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. John W. Abken, fell headlong down the cellar stairway and dislocated her left shoulder, which at this writing is doing well.

We are glad to know that Mr. Harry M. Smith, who was taken quite ill last week has improved so he can go to his place of business where Mr. Will Monath is now employed.

Mr. Edward Harkenhorn and fiance, of Baltimore, came to the home of his sister, Mrs. Theodore Fridinger, on Saturday evening and were married at 11.30 on Sunday in the home by the Rev. Ness, U. B. minister of this charge, and left by the evening train Monday. This family had 20 persons to dinner on Sunday. Independent of being nervous Mr. Fridinger is convalescing.

Mr. T. D. Hare put an egg on exhibition at the drug store Monday evening that measured 9 1/4x7 1/4 inches and weighed 5 1/4 ounces. It was laid by a Black Langshan hen.

Miss Fannie G. Ross has arranged to show to all ladies interested in needle craft the latest style pieces and work along their line on Saturday, 6th inst., at her hat shop on South Main street where she will be at their service.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunshine Society was held on Monday evening, March 1st, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Masenhimer where they had the pleasure of hearing a number of letters read from persons who had received fruits, flowers, &c., since their last meeting expressing grateful thanks. Committees were appointed to continue these distributions among the sick. Among the letters the most interesting one was from Mrs. Barnwell expressing her thanks and appreciation for the anniversary gift of the society to aid in her work for the crippled children. The members also decided to send their usual Easter Box of good things to the inmates of the County Home. Forty three yards of muslin have been cut into undergarments for the children at the fresh air farm in Howard county. The work is being given out at the home of Mrs. H. S. Musselman and offers an opportunity for all who desire to aid in this charitable work to call and get some of the sewing. The society's next meeting will be April 7th at the home of Mrs. J. E. Musselman.

GIST

The western fever seems to have struck this place this spring. Mr. George A. Grau left last week for Illinois.

This community was visited Sunday by a very disastrous fire. About noon Mr. William Gibson's family discovered that their house was on fire. The fire strted in the second story and had gained such a headway before it was discovered and as there was a strong north wind blowing at the time it was but a few minutes from the time it was discovered until the house was burned to the ground. They were unable to save scarcely anything. They had no insurance. Some of Mr. Gibson's children had been very ill and were scarcely able to be up which was quite a shock for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McQuay moved this week to their farm which they purchased from Mr. Geo. Blizzard.

The fourth quarterly Conference of the Deer Park circuit will be held at Harmony Grove M. P. Church on Saturday, March 13.

PLEASANT VALLEY

We recently saw in a Baltimore paper that at the high price of wheat they could not sell bread at 5 cents per loaf but as they did not want to raise the price they concluded to make the loaves smaller. Now at the high price of wheat and corn no one can afford to feed his chickens when the hucksters only want to pay 18 cents per dozen for eggs. There is only one remedy that we can see and that is this: We must try to induce the hens to lay more eggs and smaller ones or get out of the business entirely for the more he feeds her at the present price of wheat and corn the more he is out of pocket if she does not lay the eggs.

A little excitement occurred on Tuesday afternoon when it was learned that Mr. Harry Devilbiss' chimney was on fire. Neither Mr. Devilbiss nor his son George were home at the time. A bucket brigade was brought into service which soon extinguished the flames.

Mrs. Mary Wantz has removed the locust trees at her property which has made a big improvement.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

Mrs. H. H. Harbaugh, superintendent of the Junior Endeavor Society of the Church of God, of this city, entertained the juniors at her home on Saturday, February 20, from three to five o'clock. They all had a very pleasant time. Refreshments of everything that the little folks like, were served. After thanking their teacher for her kindness all went home happy. Those present were: Rev. J. H. Gonso, Mrs. Manning, Mrs. J. Weller, Mrs. Halter, Mabel Albert, Mary Copenhaver, Anna Hilterbridle, Bertha Harman, Nelda Weller, Alice Ebaugh, Ethel Jones, Thelma Yingling, Margaret Halter, Elizabeth Hood, Beatrice Hood, Catherine Hood, Myrtle Nusbaum, Nettie Nusbaum, Margaret Weller, George Anna Weller, Larue Yingling, Ruth Manning, Fern Heird, Nellie Hollenbaugh, Margaret Myers, Bertie Leppo, Melvin King, Leighton King, Roland King, George Yingling, Kenneth Horst, Arthur Horst, Wilbert Halter, William Manning, Garland Heird and Henry Harbaugh.

EMORY

The people of this vicinity were very sorry to loose their esteemed neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin K. Parker and family, who left on the 9.15 o'clock train Tuesday morning, March 1, 1915, for Hockingport, Ohio, where they will reside. They moved from Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Raver's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Myers moved to Reisterstown from Mr. Edward Burk's house. Mr. Burk moved from Mr. Bortner's house to his own house in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mummaugh have returned home after spending a few days with the latter's brother, Mr. James Shilling, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertland Caple and daughters, Mary Angela and Beatrice, of Eastview, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geo. Zepp.

Mrs. Milton Staup, of Finksburg, spent the week end with Mrs. Lewis Jones.

Miss Fannie Leight, of Baltimore, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leight.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Harris celebrated the 15th anniversary of their wedding on Sunday, February 28th, 1915. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carr and sons Bradley and Arthur, Mr. Royal Carr and family, of Baltimore, and Miss Gennette Taylor.

The teacher of Emory school in cooperation with the pupils has purchased a fine big flag 5x8 feet, which creates enthusiasm among the pupils and patrons. This flag will be raised in the near future.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear wife, and our beloved mother and grandma, Maggie Lee-Jane Barnes, of Taylorsville, Carroll county, who departed this life January 21, 1915, in her 50th year.

How long she suffered against disease,
Which baffled skill and care,
And long she lingered racked with pain
And sufferings hard to bear.

And yet through all at times she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth,
And when the angels called her home
She smiled farewell to earth.

Farewell dear Maggie, may your slumber
Be as gentle as your love,
And when God shall call me home,
May we meet in heaven above.
By her husband.

A precious mother from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

Our mother now has gone to rest
Beneath the tree of life,
She leans upon the Saviour's breast,
So free from pain and strife.

Oh, mother, how can we give you up,
It seems to us unjust,
To lay you in the cold, damp grave,
To moulder into dust.
By her daughter, Amelia Condon.

Oh, grandma, dear grandma, how can I live
Without thy presence here?
How shall I pass the dreary days
In all the coming years?
By her grandson, Ralph Condon.

Grandma is sleeping so free from all pain,
Oh, wake her not sweet spirit to suffer again,
She slumbers so soundly oh let her sleep on,
Her sickness is ended, her troubles all gone.
By her grandson, James Condon.

Sleep on, dear grandma, sweetly rest,
We needed you but God knew best;
God's will be done—He doeth well.
But how we miss you, no tongue can tell.
By her grandson, Herman Barnes.

Oh, the memory of that morning,
As we stood with breaking hearts,
Watching the mother we loved so dearly,
Pierced with death's most evil dart.

Yes, we miss her, oh, we miss her,
When we see her vacant chair;
And how sad the home without her,
For there is no mother there.

Somebody knew you had heartaches,
And things around you went wrong;
Somebody knew you had sorrows,
And took you as one of His own.

Oh darling mother we loved you so,
How sad it was to part;
One thought of your dear sweet face
Will cause the tears to start.
By her loving son,
Willie Barnes, and wife.

"The Best Possible Newspaper"

What sort of a paper is it? In the first place, it must be a Home Paper—the Woman's Friend and a part of her daily life. And it must be a NECESSITY to the Business Man. It must not only tell what is happening in the world, but it must go farther and tell WHY it is happening and what it means.

The Best Possible Newspaper has a staff of correspondents covering the world field of the Associated and United Press, scouring the earth for vital human facts. It has fashion and art, books and music, literature and politics at its right hand. It has the markets for the farmer, the merchant, the broker.

The world has never seen an age of greater constructive significance in politics, in science, in society. Every move in the field of action is a topic for discussion in cities, villages, hamlets, at cross-roads. And the Best Possible Newspaper must equip its readers for intelligent understanding of all these things.

That is precisely why it is the simple truth that for your purposes, and for the purpose of the whole South, the BEST POSSIBLE NEWSPAPER is
