Caspar Morris notes 1994

SIDE TWO

Mrs Ann Galloway writes to her husband Samuel Galloway who is in London in 1749 + 1754 - mentions the growth of Lois & Benny and in 1749 her approaching confinement - wants for "New whole duty of man" - and mentions the loss of 30 tons of iron on Tullys forest on its way to be shipped to London - alludes to Mr Gordon Snowden, and his uncle Samuel Thomas

John Galloway died in 1747 - Sam Galloway left Executor leaves £100 to his wife Ann with direction that she & her daughter shall be sent at the cost of the Estate to Philadelphia - She takes a house & certain furniture valued at £90 - the £100 is accepted for by Hugh Roberts acct of Susan Delaugh Widow & Dana heir of John Delaugh - Sam Galloway's Coffin is ordered for in January following the same date that his husband & Uncle died before going to Philad -

John Galloway devises to his son Joseph the Estate of Cornelius Stone devised to him by his father Samuel Galloway - John Galloway appoints his wife executrix & in case of her death or marriage before he is 18 to be educated for Lawyer or Physician and order her under Seal Care & at his cost to be indemnified for the use of the property till he is of age - he leaves the other personal estate to his daughter Jenny & appoints his wife or in case of her death before Delaugh & William Coleman of Philad John Galloway requests his brothers Joseph & Galloway Jonathan Coleman to be executors & trustees