Caspar Morris notes 1994

SIDE ONE

[illegible]

Hark! the Saviour now is calling
All by sin and care oppress'd,
"Come, you weary, heavy laden,
I will give you sweet rest."

Chorus: Come to Jesus, Come to Jesus,
He is waiting now to save,
Weary sinner, weary sinner,
Jesus has his life for you He gave

At the throne of grace you're welcome
There the Saviour pleads for thee:
Though your sins be red like crimson
They as white as snow shall be

Chorus

Bring your guilty conscience to him,
And your heart so full of sad,
He will cleanse & make it holy,
Fill with peace & make you glad

Chorus

In Memory of Caspar Morris M. D. whose life was Consecrated to the service of God and the welfare of man

He was born May 27 1805 and died Mar 17 1864
The services which he rendered this Hospital will forever link his memory with its walls
He was one of the first to suggest its Erection;
He made the principal address at the laying of its Corner Stone;
He laboured earnestly to secure its endowment;
And was ever a wise and faithful manager
Humbly walking in the footsteps of his Saviour
He won for himself the well deserved name of
"The Beloved Physician"
For his whole Professional Career was Consecrated to Christ in the service of the sick.
"If any man serve me let him follow me, and where I am there shall also my servant be"
If any man serve me
Him will my Father honour.
John XII. 26.
