SIDE ONE

I have but one desire for my Children & myself, which is that, each for themselves, accepting with thankful hearts the salvation which is so freely provided for all in Jesus "whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation "through faith in His blood, to declare His righteousness "for the remission of sins that are past", we may then our gratitude by following "his precepts" & living to His glory. Then I know all things needful will be provided for each one. As regards my departure you would add greatly to it by failing to write freely & openly to me about all that concerns you. Any fear that you were withholding anything would aggravate it greatly. So do not let me have any ground for such apprehension. I beseech you.

With many prayers for you and dear Hannah & the boys

Your ever loving father

My dear Son

Yours of yesterday is just received for which I thank you heartily. I have often been "too late" in my suggestions, and attention to concerns; & this extremely cold weather makes me fear I have been so about reminding you of the water pipes at 1033. Richard knows that there are windows in the vault & cellar which must be stuffed with old carpet. If he had not done it, especially that in to the vault, I am sure last night must have frozen. Mine in the vault. The thermometer here at 8 AM stood at 7°. Down town at daylight at — 4°. And in this house usual
