My Dear Son

I have been looking for letters from you & hope to get one tomorrow as my anxiety is very oppressive - Israel left work on Friday & told me he was going to the mines tomorrow so that I can not hope for anything from him. Your uncle is suffering greatly & seems very feeble - You have never told me what you have done about my suit of heavy winter clothes. It is a shame to allow them to lie to be moth eaten, when there are so many suffering for them. If Richard can not wear them you must find some way of disposing of them - Let me know & I will send them to the Kansas sufferers

My dear Son I am very much anxious about you

My Dear Son

I was very much disappointed at having no visit from you last Friday. and have been feeling more than usually disturbed. as Israel will tell you when he sees you. He left me on Monday morn designing to go to Annapolis & I supposed would return to Philadelphia that night. I have since learned through Cousin that he did not expect to reach home before some time to day. I was afraid from something that passed between us he might buy a Typewriter for me. but hope he will not as your uncle is so very
