and the children were happier there than they would be any where else. We must not allow the loss of your dear Mother to terrify a loss to your sister to carry with it any abridgment of her ~~Own~~ pecuniary resources. I will honestly confess to you that I am getting very uneasy about it and shall not be at ease till I see some plan for settlement.

Your loving father

You & Frank must come here together & let us have a calm free conference

I have written to your brother by this mail. See my letter to him

Your Uncle says he sees no occasion for any action now & does not think any one will be benefitted by it
