My dear Galloway

Having rec'd a line by the boat last evening saying that Mrs Morley continues quite sick I have decided to go home today by Annapolis R. Road.

How long I may be absent from here I can not say. If you come down to see me by the boat I decide to take him you can order him back to you.

I hope you will not decline to join in the organization of the Mutual Insurance but I hope in all parties to allow the Mutual company to be employed.

We shall soon be ready to hand over the legacies
