0270

1881 March - April Galloway C. Morris Incoming Letters 1994

SIDE ONE

142 Lanvale St. Balto.
17. 4 mo. 1881

My dear Friend,
Dr. Morris

I have thought so very much about thee lately, that I have concluded to write and tell thee so. I am sure that thy heart has been very sad and lonely, and that the reaction after such long watching and anxiety must be very trying, but still I am sure that in the midst of all these changes and losses, the unchangeableness of our Lord has been as an anchor to thy soul. I have thought with such joy today that just as truly as those early disciples knew it, so we can know that "the Lord is risen indeed", for He has appeared to us, and has spoken the blessed "Peace be