MANCHESTER

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. F. Burgoon, living in the suburbs just south of the Cemetery, held a family reunion on Sunday and gave a two course dinner in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wink. Every person seemed at the best and a good social time was enjoyed. The guests were taken to the dining room at 12 M., where plates were laid for fourteen. The table appointments were first class and all enjoyed the dinner amid the many pleasantries that were passed. The hostess was assisted by her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Arthur and Mrs. Edward Burgoon and granddaughter, Miss Helen Burgoon. After the dinner hour all were grouped and a picture taken. Those of the group were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. F. Burgoon, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wink, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wink, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Burgoon, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burgoon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burgoon, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey N. Burgoon, Mrs. Nagle, Misses Naomi Burgoon, Messrs. Ross Blocher, G. W. J. Everhart.

The Victrola Concert in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Saturday evening given under the auspices of the Willing Workers' Aid Society of the Reformed Church, was well attended. In the absence of the agent, Mr. William Culp, of Baltimore, attended the machine and entertained the audience very pleasantly. The society had a neat sum to add to its bank account.

The committee appointed at the congregational meeting in Trinity Church, on the 20th of June, met on Thursday, 24, organized and ventilated the building of a parsonage proposition, with the expectation of offering the old building at public sale to the highest bidder. They intend building the new home of brick, to be placed in the middle of the lot. They expect to take the style from a book of drawings for parsonages.

Mr. Jacob Utz, living east of Greenmount, was driving his motorcycle south on the macadam road, and at the raidroad crossing north of Hampstead, a local freight running north bore down on him as he was crossing the tracks and caught the hind wheel of the machine and made a complete wreck of it. It appears that he made the miraculous escape by jumping forward over the handle bars and only received a little bruise and a big scare. The place of the accident is one of great danger.

Mr. C. J. H. Ganter and A. H. Geiselman had concrete pavements and gutters put down in front of their homes on South Main street, by B. F. Armacost; and Mr. John B. Lamotte and J. E. Masenhimer had cement pavements put down in front of their homes and walks through their yards to the alley, by Mr. Lester Shaffer.

Mr. J. Wesley Snyder had concrete walks put through his yards by Mr. Shaffer.

Messrs. E. Berwager and A. Buchman took the putting down of pavements and concrete gutters in front of the Washington Hotel, Dug Hill Fire Ins. Co. and Firemen's Hall, by contract, and had Mr. Shaffer do the work, that is qute an improvement in that section of the town.

Workmen are pushing the completion of macadamizing the turnpike two and a half miles north of town, under the superintendence of Mr. J. H. Blocher. The part from the town limit to Warehime's lane is about finished and is a fine piece of road, and no doubt by the middle of the month the whole will be finished. Some work for the betterment of the pike to the Pennsylvania line has been done.

Prof. and Mrs. Maurice Unger, accompanied by Mr. George Hoffman, drove their car to New York City on the 24th, where they will spend some days looking after their interests at the school and arranging for their vacation. Mr. H. returned home by rail on Saturday.

GAMBER 3, CALEDONIA 2

Gamber B. B. A defeated the Caledonia A. C., at McQuay meadow, Saturdap June 26—3 to 2. The game was hotly contested throughout, and was only won in the last inning. The home team put up a fair article of ball, but the visiting batting was too much for Shipley's curves. Monroe's hitting, H. Barnes home run, and the pitching of Arnold, were the features.

Decide Yourself

The Opportunity Is Here, Backed By Westminster Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.

Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Westminster endorsement.

Read the statements of Westminster citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it.

Jesse Stultz, Pennsylvania avenue, Westminster, Md., says: "For some time I suffered from disordered kidneys. My back ached, I had pains in my sides and was caused annoyance by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Moore's Drug Store, helped me at once and I continued taking them until I felt better in every way."

Children Cry
CASTORIA

The small boy would no doubt enjoy going on a safe and sane picnic July 4, were he not exhausted from faithful performance of the arduous duty of keeping the neighborhood awake the night before.

Yale and Harvard each got nearly a million in Commencement gifts, but as none of it was for either baseball or foot ball, it does not seem to meet the most crying needs of education at these centers.
